PREFACE.

THE following volume, compiled by Mr. Laurence Binyon, is the first of a detailed Catalogue of the Drawings and Sketches by British artists, and artists of foreign origin working in Great Britain, which are preserved in the Department of Prints and Drawings. The catalogue is arranged in the alphabetical order of the artists' names. It will be completed in five or at most in six volumes—the last volume to contain a table of artists' names grouped historically, with full indexes of subjects represented, topography, portraits, etc. It happens that the collection includes an exceptionally large number of examples by certain artists whose names fall under the first three letters of the alphabet: hence the present volume only carries the work down to the end of the letter C.

Since the constitution of the section of Prints and Drawings as a separate Department of the Museum, the general idea which has guided its administration, so far as concerns the acquisition of drawings and sketches by native hands, has been that it should contain one characteristic example or more of every artist who has left a name, and so furnish the student and the curious with something like a complete illustrated record, in this form, of the history of British art. At the same time the aim has generally been to give the chief representation to artists of the chief merit and importance. But accidents of various kinds, and especially the accidents of donation and bequest, have unavoidably interfered in practice with the fulfilment of this latter aim. Thus in the present volume, some names will be found represented much more fully than others of equal or higher rank: as for instance J. W. Archer, whose prominence is due to the opportunity which arose in 1874 of purchasing from Mr. E. Twopenny the fine series of London topographical drawings executed by him on that gentleman's commission; Mary and Charles Beale, by whom nearly two hundred portrait studies were included in the great bequest of the Rev. C. M. Cracherode in 1799; and the brothers Byng, whose albums, containing a sketched record of apparently the entire life-work of their master, Kneller, came into the Museum last year. Similarly the over-representation of W. Alexander and H. Corbould arises from the circumstance that both these artists were much employed by the Trustees in making drawings from the Museum antiquities to be engraved in their official publications, and that these drawings now form part of the departmental collections; while the members of the Bewick family are here in especial force through the generosity of the late Miss Bewick, as is the skilful though now almost forgotten painter and book-illustrator, R. Cook, R.A., through the gift of a veteran benefactor of the department, Mr. J. Deffett Francis of Swansea. Lastly, George Cruikshank fills nearly a quarter of the whole volume by reason of the vast collection of his sketches and studies, nearly 4,000 in number, which was bequeathed by his widow in 1891.

Subject to exceptions of this kind, the student will find in the collection something like a fair proportional representation of nearly all the important names in the annals of British art, as well of not a few among the unimportant and the obscure, including a certain admixture of amateurs who have been thought to deserve admittance either on account of their skill or of their eminence in other walks of life besides the artistic.

The works described in the following pages belong accordingly to the most varying degrees of artistic merit and importance. At one end of the scale the interest is one purely of record, curiosity, and research, as in the case of the topographical sketches or fancy compositions of amateurs like Lady Calcott, Dr. Crotch the musician, or the famous surgeon Sir Charles Bell ; at the other end it is the interest of fine art in some of its purest forms, as in the accomplished work of early or later masters of water-colour like J. R. Cozens or David Cox, or the exquisite pastoral dreams and harmonies of Edward Calvert. But between these two extremes there is, in a collection like the present, no sharp line of division to be drawn. Historically speaking, the roots of English art lie in comparatively humble employments, that of "face-painting" or common-place portraiture, and those of topographical drawing and figure-illustration for the booksellers. Of artists who began by the practice of these various crafts, many were poorly gifted and remained obscure, while others rose to greatness. Many again retained to the end an intermediate place ; and the ascent is quite gradual from the efforts of such journeymen in portraiture as the brothers Byng, whose work is now interesting for purposes of reference only, to the highest achievements of Reynolds, Gainsborough, or Lawrence ; or again from the skill of such a humble father of English book-illustration as W. Chalmers to that of a classic master in the same walk like Stothard ; or, once more, from that of such diligent but stiff topographical draughtsmen as the brothers Buck to that of famous artists like Girtin and Turner (the last of whom, it should be remembered, began with modest topographical work for book and almanac sellers, and continued to find part of his employment in book-illustration through the days of his greatness).

The department where these collections are preserved partakes of the double character of a library and a gallery department. It is in so far a library department that the main bulk of the collections have necessarily to be kept in the shelves and cases of the Print Room, where they are made accessible to students with as little restriction as possible, just as books are made accessible to them in the Reading Room. This is the permanent and only way of treating all those parts of the collection which, being of no high or general artistic interest, are of use mainly for purposes of reference, record, and research. But from other parts, those at the upper end of the scale of artistic merit, it has always been the practice of the Department to place selections, varied from time to time, on exhibition in the public galleries; formerly in the King's Library, and of late years in the new exhibition gallery in the White Building. When, with the future growth of the Museum buildings, there comes an increase of the gallery space allotted to the Department, which is at present far too small for its needs, it will doubtless be found both practicable and desirable to give a large extension to this practice of placing on public exhibition the choicer contents of the Department, both prints and drawings.

It should be noted that, although the present volume is complete so far as concerns the examples now actually in the Department by the artists whom it includes, it does not indicate other and very important examples which are the property of the Museum in reversion, viz., those bequeathed to the Trustees by the Rev. C. J. Sale in 1896, subject to the life-interest of his widow. Among the collection so devised is a series of the works of David Cox not less numerous and valuable than those which came into the Department through the bequest of Mr. John Henderson.

All measurements are given in inches and fractions of inches, according to the usual English practice: the height in every case before the length. The abbreviations, roy., imp., atl., ant. (for royal, imperial, atlas, antiquarian), indicate the four sizes adopted for the mounts of those drawings which are preserved in solander cases, from the ordinary size to the largest. The drawings thus preserved are catalogued in an ascending order of size; the royals, which are almost always the most numerous, coming first. The specimens of each size are arranged and numbered according to priority of acquisition, except in those cases where an arrangement according to subject has seemed necessary or obviously preferable. Drawings and sketches bound in albums follow in the catalogue after those which are separately mounted and kept in solander cases. H.L. added after a portrait = half length, T.Q.L. = three-quarter length, W.L. = whole length. Other abbreviations will explain themselves.

All the above were presented by F. A. Abbott, Esq., March, 1880.

ADAM, Robert (b. 1728, d. 1792). Architect and landscape painter; educated at Edinburgh; travelled in Italy and Dalmatia, where he made drawings of the ruins of Diocletian's palace, afterwards engraved and published in 1764; designed and carried out with his brother James, in a neo-classical style of much grace and originality, the Adelphi, Fitzroy Square, Stratford Place, Lansdowne House, and many other buildings and groups of buildings in London, as well as many great English country houses, e.g., Osterley, Harewood, Kedleston, and public buildings both in Edinburgh and Glasgow.

1. ROCKY LANDSCAPE AND CASTLE. Crags, divided in the centre by a torrent, and surmounted, l., by a castle. In the foreground, a road crossing the torrent by a bridge. Two friars and, behind, a horseman pass l.; a horse and cart, followed by a man, r.
Water colours with pen outlines; roy., $10 \times 12\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Water colours with pen outlines; roy., $10 \times 12\frac{1}{2}$ in.
3. CASTLE IN MOUNTAINOUS LANDSCAPE. A castle on the top of a knoll, with a river flowing round it. A road passing in front of the castle crosses the water by a bridge, and winds upwards past a church and buildings l. Beyond rise bare crags. In the foreground l., a tree; r., two figures in a boat.
Water colours with pen outlines; roy., $9\frac{3}{4} \times 11\frac{1}{4}$ in.
4. LANDSCAPE WITH FIGURES. Sunset among trees on the shores of a lake. On the farther bank a cottage; on the water a boat, with a woman seated and a man fishing. On the near bank, in the centre, a man driving a cart; towards the l., two figures with rod and net.
All the above were purchased, October, 1872.

ADAMS, C. (worked about 1830). Biography unknown.

1. COAST SCENE WITH FIGURES. A waggon, with four horses, drawn up on the beach; two men, one in the waggon, are loading it with baskets of fish, while a woman stands by; l., a boat. Signed C. Adams.
Water colours; roy., $7\frac{3}{4} \times 4\frac{3}{4}$ in.
Presented by Sir A. W. Franks, K.C.B., October, 1891.

ADAMS, Miss Lucy (worked about 1815–1843). Painter; worked at Billericay, Essex; exhibitor at the Royal Academy and the Suffolk Street Galleries.

1. PORTRAIT SKETCH OF MRS. TROLLOPE. Vignette portrait, full face, of Mrs. Frances Trollope.
Water colours; roy., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{1}{4}$ in.
Purchased August, 1861.

Frances Trollope (b. at Stapleton, Somerset, 1780, d. at Florence, 1863) was the daughter of the Rev. W. Milton, wife of Thomas Anthony Trollope, and mother of Anthony and Thomas Adolphus Trollope. She was the author of a great number of novels and books of travel popular in their day.

AGLIO, Augustine (b. 1777, d. 1857). Painter, decorator, and lithographer; born at Cremona, and studied at Milan, but settled in England early this century, and remained here till his death; was employed to decorate theatres and other buildings, and also painted landscapes and portraits.

1. Two on one mount, roy., viz. :—
 - (a) INTERIOR OF A GARRET. Part of a garret with a window in the sloping roof, a short ladder leaning against the sill and a wooden box on the floor.
Pen, tinted with sepia and water colours; $5\frac{3}{4} \times 3\frac{3}{4}$ in.
 - (b) INTERIOR OF A GARDEN HOUSE. A square hut with high walls lightly constructed of wood, and with gaps left in the roof; table and stools l., and spade, scythe, etc., hanging on the wall; a park seen through the open door. Signed, A. Aglio invt.
Pen, with sepia and water colour wash; $5\frac{3}{4} \times 7\frac{3}{4}$ in.
Purchased May, 1890, at the Percy sale.

AINSLEY, Samuel James (b. before 1820, d. 1874). Draughtsman, etcher, and lithographer; travelled 1842–1843 in Etruria with G. Dennis, author of ‘The Cities and Cemeteries of Etruria,’ and made many sketches of Etruscan sites and antiquities, some of which he etched and lithographed; a set of these prints is in the department.

(1ST TOUR, JUNE—JULY, 1842.)

1. INTERIOR OF THE GROTTA DEL TIFONE AT CORNETO. The tomb is represented from the inside, looking towards the entrance, through which the light falls on a recumbent statue. The painted figure of ‘Typhon’ is seen on the r. side of the central column (Dennis,¹ Vol. I., p. 327). Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Tarquinia, June 7, 1842.

Pencil on grey paper, heightened with white; roy., $11\frac{1}{2} \times 17\frac{1}{2}$ in.

Etched by Ainsley.

Pencil on drab paper, heightened with yellow ochre and white; roy., $17\frac{1}{2} \times 11\frac{1}{2}$ in.

3. THE SAME SUBJECT, FROM THE S. The bridge, beyond which stretches the open country, with distant hills, occupies the centre; the lower part of it is hidden by the steep, winding banks of the river; r., the castle. Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Ponte della Badia, 13 Giugno, 1842.

Pencil on drab paper, heightened with yellow ochre and white; roy., $11 \times 17\frac{1}{2}$ in.

4. THE SAME SUBJECT FROM THE S., LOWER DOWN. The Fiora winds from the bridge to the foreground under steep rocky banks r., surmounted by the castle; l., a sloping bank with cornfields. Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Ponte della Badia, 13 Giugno, 1842.

Water colours; roy., $11 \times 17\frac{1}{2}$ in.

5. VIEW OF MONTE ALTO. A town, the outer wall of which is seen in perspective between a large turreted building occupying the r., and a gateway, above and behind which rises a campanile. A road l., leading to the gateway; below, beyond the town, a bridge with a glimpse of the Fiora; the plain, and mountains across a strip of sea. Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Monte Alto, 14 Giugno, 1842.

Water colours; roy., $11 \times 17\frac{1}{2}$ in.

6. TWO SKETCHES OF AN ETRUSCAN TOMB, NEAR CORNETO. (a) A circular mound surrounded with masonry, called “Il Mausoleo” (Dennis, I., p. 386). Inscribed Ancient Etruscan Tomb, Tarquinia, June 17, 1842.

(b) A sunken stone doorway under the mound; blocks of masonry r. Inscribed Entrance to the above Tomb. S. J. Ainsley, June 28, 1842.

Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., $17\frac{1}{2} \times 11\frac{1}{2}$ in.

7. VIEW FROM MONTE ROZZI, CORNETO. White cliffs in the centre, backed by the dark range of the Tolfa Hills, r.; from the r. foreground, a road descends into the valley, towards which a herd of cattle are being driven. In the distance an aqueduct; the sea and hills on the horizon. A tumulus, part of the necropolis of the ancient Tarquinia, in the foreground (Dennis, I., 302). Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Monte Rozzi, Tarquinia, June 18, 1842.

Pencil on drab paper, heightened with yellow ochre and white; roy., $10\frac{1}{2} \times 17\frac{1}{2}$ in.

8. VIEW NEAR CORNETO. The Monte Rozzi, covered with the remains of tumuli, rises above an aqueduct l., and slopes away r. into the open plain. Beyond, the distant hills. In the r. foreground a cork tree, and further off, woods, among which rise towards the l. some half-ruined buildings. Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Tarquinia, June, 1842.

Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., $10\frac{1}{2} \times 17\frac{1}{2}$ in.

¹ ‘The Cities and Cemeteries of Etruria.’ By George Dennis. 2 vols. London, Murray. 2nd edition, 1878.

9. MONTE ROZZI. The Monte, traversed by a winding road, occupies the middle distance. The Tolfa mountains beyond. Signed and dated Monte-Rozzi, Tarquinia, June 22, 1842, S. J. A.

Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., $11 \times 17\frac{1}{2}$ in.

10. VIEW OF CORNETO FROM OUTSIDE THE PORTA S. MARIA DI CASTELLO. The town is seen on the top of a steep white cliff, stretching from the centre to the fortified gate in the foreground r., from which two peasant-women and a boy are advancing. L., a valley with trees and buildings, and, nearer, some more figures. Signed and dated Corneto, Porta S. Maria di Castello, S. J. Ainsley, June 25, 1842.

Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., $10\frac{1}{2} \times 17\frac{1}{2}$ in.

11. LA MERCARECCIA, AN ETRUSCAN TOMB NEAR CORNETO. The first chamber of the tomb is seen from the outside through a large opening. The walls are covered with sculptures of wild beast and hunting scenes. In the centre a doorway leading to further chambers (Dennis, I., p. 391). Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, La Mercareccia, June 22, 1842, Corneto.

Pencil and sepia wash on grey paper, heightened with white; roy., $11\frac{1}{2} \times 17\frac{1}{2}$ in.

Etched and lithographed by Ainsley.

12. VIEW NEAR CORNETO. A road, with two figures, one on horseback, winds away into the wooded valley. From the road the ground slopes down among olive trees to a high wall r. Beyond, the open plain, and l., mountains. Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Corneto, June 28, 1842.

Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., $11 \times 17\frac{1}{2}$ in.

Water colours; roy., $10\frac{1}{2} \times 17\frac{1}{2}$ in.

14. CORNETO, LOOKING TOWARDS THE SEA. The town, l., crowns a hill topped with white cliffs. Between this hill and the heights of the foreground a valley winds to the Mediterranean, which stretches along the horizon. Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Tarquinia, June 30, 1842.

Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., $10\frac{1}{2} \times 17\frac{1}{2}$ in.

15. THE ETRUSCAN COAST FROM MONTE ROZZI. Heathy downs, shelving away to the sea, which fills the distance; across the bay r., a distant mountain. The towers of Corneto are just seen behind the hill towards the r. Inscribed Monte Rozzi, Tarquinia, July 1, 1842.

Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., $11 \times 17\frac{1}{2}$ in.

Water colours; roy., $10\frac{1}{2} \times 17\frac{1}{2}$ in.

17. VIEW OF TOSCANELLA. The town is seen at some distance, crowning the hills. The view is interrupted r. by a hill topped with crags; under this hill, in the foreground, is a road running parallel with a stream, and joined l., by another road crossing the stream by a bridge. Above, l., rises the height of San Pietro, with church and towers. Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Toscanella, July 6, 1842.

Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., $11 \times 17\frac{1}{2}$ in.

18. ANOTHER VIEW OF TOSCANELLA. The height of San Pietro occupies the r. centre, and the town is seen to the l. across a valley. In the foreground r., a hill with boulders and bushes. Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Toscanella, July 7, 1842.

Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., $11 \times 17\frac{1}{2}$ in.

19. VIEW NEAR TOSCANELLA. The height of San Pietro, seen from the side of the town. It is skirted on the l. by a road which winds away into the valley l. Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Toscanella, July 8, 1842.

Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., $11 \times 17\frac{1}{2}$ in.

20. ETRUSCAN SARCOPHAGI AT TOSCANELLA. A vaulted cavern formed in imitation of a tomb, in the garden of the Campanari family (Dennis, I., p. 474), and surrounded with sarcophagi, on each of which reclines a statue. A lidless sarcophagus, with side carved in relief, stands in the centre; and vases hang on the walls. Signed and dated Toscanello, S. J. Ainsley, July 9th, 1842.
Pencil on grey paper, heightened with white; roy., 11 × 17½ in.
21. RUIN AT BOLSENA. The ruins of a temple, of Roman origin (Dennis, II., p. 24). L., a road ascending the heights, surmounted by the walls and towers of Bolsena; r., the Volsinian lake (Lago di Bolsena). Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Bolsena, Tu., July 12, 1842.
Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., 11 × 17½ in.
22. BOLSENA, FROM THE SOUTH. The town lies in a hollow among trees; part of it, fortified with towers, occupies the heights above, which descend abruptly along the r., in cliffs and caverns. L., the shores of the lake; in the background, the hills of the open country. Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Bolsena, Tues., July 12, 1842.
Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., 11 × 17½ in.
23. THE LAKE OF BOLSENA, NEAR MONTEFIAScone. The lake, with two islets, stretches from the centre to the r.; in the foreground a road, with peasants advancing, disappears behind a tree-topped bank l., and is seen further on climbing a hill, which slopes, densely wooded, to the shore. Signed and dated Montefiascone, Wed., 13 July, 1842. S. J. Ainsley.
Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., 11½ × 17½ in.
24. VIEW FROM MONTEFIAScone. The open plain. A road winding from the foreground r. passes a house l., and crosses a low ridge, which stretches to the shores of the lake r. Just beyond the ridge, some buildings by the roadside. Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Montefiascone, Th., 14 July, 1842.
Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., 11 × 17½ in.
Lithographed by Ainsley.
25. VIEW AT MONTEFIAScone. Two groups of ruins r. and l. cresting the brow of a height, from which is seen the open plain beneath, rising into distant hills. Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Montefiascone, Fri., 15 July, 1842.
Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., 11 × 17½ in.
26. VIEW NEAR MONTEFIAScone. An undulating plain with mountains in the distance; in the foreground, a road, which winds towards the l., under a knoll with houses and trees. Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Montefiascone, Sat., 16 July, 1842.
Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., 11 × 17½ in.
Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., 11 × 17½ in.
28. ORVIETO FROM THE EAST. The city, only partially seen, crowns an isolated cliff-bound hill. In the foreground l., the Paglia winds away to the r. of the city; r., a path curving out of sight among the trees, seems to join a road which crosses the bridge and disappears in the valley. Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Orvieto, Wed., July 20, 1842.
Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., 11 × 17½ in.
29. ORVIETO FROM THE VITERBO ROAD. The city is seen at some distance across a valley, on its hill. The road descends in the centre from the foreground among trees. Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Orvieto, Th., July 21, 1842.
Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., 11½ × 17½ in.
30. ORVIETO FROM THE VITERBO GATE. The gate r. opens on a bastion, to which the Viterbo road ascends l. from the open country; scarped cliffs, surmounted by the houses, extend from the gate towards the l., descending sheer into a plain, through which the Paglia winds from distant hills. Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Orvieto, Th., 21 July, 1842.
Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., 11½ × 17½ in.

31. VIEW OF BOMARZO. The town stands on a spur of the Ciminian hills, and is seen in an opening between wooded slopes. In the foreground r., an oak. Signed and dated, S. J. Ainsley, Bomarzo, Mon., 25 July, 1842.
(2ND TOUR, OCT., 1842.)
32. ISOLA FARNESE AND THE SITE OF VEII, FROM THE ROAD TO LA STORTA. The hamlet stands on a cliff in the middle of the downs, which are broken into narrow ravines. In the distance, the Apennines. A road winds from the foreground towards Isola (Dennis, I., p. 2). Signed and dated S. J. Ainsley, Veii, Th., 27 Oct., 1842.
Pencil with sepia and indigo wash on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., $10\frac{7}{8} \times 17\frac{3}{8}$ in.

Purchased in May, 1877.

ASPINALL, J. (worked about 1790–1800). Of this artist nothing is known. From the style of the drawing described, he seems to have worked about the close of the last century.

1. LANDSCAPE WITH CASCADE. A waterfall, spanned by a slender stone bridge, plunging between high rocks in a woody mountain glen.
Water colours; roy., 13½ × 10½ in.
Purchased in August, 1877.

ASPLAND, Theophilus Lindsey (b. 1807, d. 1890). Painter and engraver; born at Hackney; apprenticed to George Cooke, the engraver, but soon took up painting; worked and taught drawing at Manchester and Liverpool; removed 1848 to Esthwaite Water, and devoted himself to the scenery of the Lakes; lived from 1871 at Bath, and from 1881 at Reigate.

1. VIEW OF REDCAR. A sandy shore with fishing boats drawn up and a group of fisher-folk in the foreground. R. the sea, and l. the village clustered on low cliffs, with a windmill at the back of it.
Water colours; roy., 5¼ × 13½ in.
2. Five on one mount, roy., viz.:—
 - (a) VIEW ON A RIVER. On the near bank r., a sailing boat; beyond l., a mountain.

- (d) VIEW IN THE LAKE DISTRICT. A rustic bridge over a stream; a tree on the bank l.; hills beyond.
Monochrome sketch; $3\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{1}{2}$ in.
4. START POINT, DEVON. A stretch of sand l. with a fisherman coming up from the sea, which appears between a high rock l. and the rocky cliff, sloping up r. to higher ground, with browsing sheep. In the foreground a stream, bordered with rushes and red sorrel, flows between the cliff-slopes and the sand.
Water colours; imp., 14×21 in.
5. REIGATE HEATH. A path with a man and dog near two seated figures in the midst of the open heath, stretching to distant hills under a showery sky; l., some lower slopes crowned with two windmills; and r., tree-topped knolls with pasturing sheep.
Water colours; imp., $6\frac{1}{2} \times 20\frac{1}{2}$ in.
6. AT WINDERMERE. A cottage partly seen r., and a girl with a child in her arms by the open door; towards the l., two children by a gate, on each side of which a yew and beech mingle their branches and frame a glimpse of the lake in the near distance. Signed T. L. Aspland.
Water colours; oval, imp., $16\frac{1}{2} \times 21\frac{1}{4}$ in.
7. LANDSCAPE WITH FIGURES. A stream l., shaded by trees; r., the bank of a grassy slope, with two beech trees close together, and a man seated on a fallen trunk talking to another standing.
Water colour; imp., $11\frac{1}{2} \times 16\frac{3}{4}$ in.
- All the above were presented by Mrs. T. L. Aspland, June, 1892.

ASTLEY, John (b. about 1730, d. 1787). Portrait painter; born in Shropshire; pupil of Hudson, and companion of Reynolds and Wilson at Rome; worked afterwards in Dublin and London.

1. PORTRAIT OF SIR JOSHUA REYNOLDS AT THE AGE OF 27. Head and neck, in full face, with hair falling on the shoulders. Inscribed and dated, Rome, May, 1750.
Black chalk and stump on gray paper, heightened with white; roy., $16\frac{1}{2} \times 11$ in.
Purchased June, 1897.

ATHOW, T. (worked about 1806–1822). Portrait and landscape painter; lived in London, and worked in various parts of England.

1. PORTRAIT OF SIR KENELM DIGBY. A whole-length of a gentleman standing by a table, dressed in ruff, trunk hose, and short cloak. On the wall behind, l., an allegorical picture with the same person refusing riches offered by a female figure, and underneath the motto: His majora. Signed on a border drawn round the subject: T. Athow. Beneath, on the margin: Sir Kenelm Digby. Ætatis 23. From an original portrait at Gothurst, Northamptonshire (sic).
Water colours over Indian ink; roy., $16\frac{3}{8} \times 10\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Gothurst, now Gayhurst, in Buckinghamshire (not Northamptonshire), is the seat of the Digby family.
Purchased April, 1860.
2. PENSURST PLACE. The house seen at a little distance from within the grounds with a view of the country l. behind it. Signed: T. Athow, and with the "arms and inscription over the entrance" copied in the lower margin.
Water colours over Indian ink; imp., $15\frac{1}{4} \times 21\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Purchased January, 1888.

ATKINS, Samuel (worked about 1787–1808). Marine painter; from 1796 to 1804 in India; afterwards worked in London and exhibited at the Royal Academy.

1. ENGLISH MEN-OF-WAR LYING AT SPITHEAD. Seven men-of-war, four in one line, with three beyond, two of which are setting sail. The two at the l. of the nearer line are flying signals; the two to the r. fly—one the blue, the other the red ensign. Several of the ships' boats are going to and fro, and a cutter is sailing l. Quite near, in the centre, is a three-masted lugger beside a buoy. At the extreme r. the Isle of Wight, and at the extreme l. a fort.

Purchased July, 1874.

ATKINSON, John Augustus (b. 1775, d. after 1831). Painter and etcher; born in London; spent most of his youth in Russia, where he was patronised at Court; etched 1803–4 the plates for 'A Picturesque Representation of the Manners, Customs, and Amusements of the Russians,' and 1807 published a similar work on Great Britain, both of which works are in the Department.

1. A RUSSIAN ITINERANT WINE VENDOR. In the road, before a snow-covered cottage, a man with fur-trimmed red cap and high boots pouring wine into a glass from a cylindrical vessel strapped in front of him, for a little girl in a long dress of dark blue.

Purchased at the Percy Sale, May, 1890.

2. THE BATTLE OF WATERLOO. Towards the l. the Duke of Wellington raising his hat, surrounded by his staff, with Blucher among them; a hussar rides up towards him from the battle, the movement and smoke of which occupy the valley and heights beyond; r., a group of Highlanders and cuirassiers fighting hand-to-hand. In the foreground various dead and wounded soldiers, some tended by their comrades.

Water colours; atlas, $16\frac{5}{8} \times 23\frac{1}{8}$ in.

This is a finished study for an oil picture of the battle, Atkinson's masterpiece, exhibited 1819, and engraved by J. Burnet. The portraits in the picture were done by A. W. Devis; but this study, which differs in many respects from the print, especially in the heads, seems to be entirely by Atkinson. In the picture the treatment of the heads, designed to give them relief as individual portraits, impairs the composition, which is finer in this study.

Purchased February, 1872.

ATTWOLD, R. (worked about 1750). Draughtsman and engraver, only known by two engravings on one plate, published 1750, for which the following drawings were the studies. The engravings have been mounted and placed with the drawings.

1. THE MILITARY NURSE, OR MODERN OFFICER. A diminutive boy ensign, held in leading strings by a sergeant with a halberd; two soldiers on each side behind.

Red chalk; roy., $7\frac{1}{2} \times 5\frac{3}{8}$ in.

The engraving from this has the following verses under the title.

*By dear Mama's petition,
And good Papa's purse,
Jacky gets a Commission
And likewise a Nurse.*

*But Glorious William to his Praise,
Filthy lucre doth defile;
Men of merit loves to raise,
As many well can testifie.*

2. THE NAVAL NURSE, OR MODERN COMMANDER. A boy officer in his cabin sitting by a bowl of punch and smoking, l., while a servant enters r., to ask for orders.

Red chalk; roy., $7\frac{3}{8} \times 5\frac{1}{2}$ in.

In the engraving from this the figures have labels coming from their mouths with: Sr. your Commands; and See Jack Spritsail have another Dozen, Dem'e. Beneath the title:

*From Mid. to Lieutenant
Bluff quickly doth rise,
Then next gets Command
By the aid of a Prize.
By Brave Warren and such
Our Foes were opprest,
And not by Boy Captains
Just wean'd from the breast.*

Both purchased, August, 1854.

AUGUSTA SOPHIA, Princess (b. 1768, d. 1840). Amateur; the sixth child of George III.; drew, etched, and composed music.

1. HEAD OF A GIRL. A profile turned to the r., with long flowing hair and eyes cast down. Signed and dated, Augusta Sophia, 1788.
Pen and light water colour wash; roy., $8 \times 8\frac{1}{4}$ in.
Purchased at the McIntosh sale in May, 1857.

AUSTIN, Samuel (b. 1796, d. 1834). Water colour painter; born at Liverpool; had lessons from De Wint, whose style he followed; exhibited at Suffolk Street 1824–26, and from 1827 at the Water Colour Society.

1. STRATFORD-ON-AVON. Beyond a field with dark bordering elms, the church spire rises sharply against the white cloud of a windy sky; in the foreground r. and l. willows with branches tossing in the breeze.
Water colours; roy., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 12$ in.
Purchased May, 1894.

AYLESFORD, Heneage Finch, Fourth Earl of (b. 1751, d. 1812). Amateur; born in London; exhibited at the Royal Academy 1786–90.

1. CLASSICAL LANDSCAPE. A temple with Corinthian columns r., half hidden by a bank and trees; l., a view of wood and water among hills.
Pen and sepia wash; roy., $5\frac{3}{8} \times 10\frac{3}{4}$ in.
Bequeathed by R. Payne Knight, Esq., 1824.
2. LANDSCAPE WITH A SHEPHERD. A grassy slope with steep bush-grown crags on either side; a shepherd and his flock on the slope, beyond which is a glimpse of a lake, enclosed by crag and hill.
Pen and sepia, tinted with water colours; roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 12\frac{1}{4}$ in.
Purchased January, 1888.
3. LANDSCAPE STUDY. A moss-grown ruinous wooden building, with a contrivance like a lock-gate, and with trees behind and in front of it.
Sepia and Indian ink sketch; roy., $12\frac{3}{4} \times 19\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Purchased January, 1888.

BACK, Sir George (b. 1796, d. 1878). Admiral and Arctic explorer; joined Franklin in several Arctic expeditions; went in search of Captain Ross, 1833–35, and on another expedition 1835. Back published an account of his journey along the Great Fish River, illustrated by himself, in 1836, and a work on the voyage of the Terror in 1838.

1. VIEW IN THE ARCTIC REGIONS. A barque, probably H.M.S. Terror, with all sails set, upon a calm sea, passing r. by a huge iceberg; a number of walrus in the water l., and others between the iceberg and the ship; in distance two more icebergs; these and sky, clouded l., are flushed by a low sun r. Signed G. Back.
Water colours; roy., $6\frac{3}{8} \times 9\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Presented by Sir A. W. Franks, October, 1891.

BACON, John, R.A. (b. 1740, d. 1799). Sculptor; born in Southwark, and began his career as a potter; entered as a student of the Royal Academy on its foundation in 1758, and received the first gold medal given there for sculpture; designed monuments in the Guildhall, St. Paul's and Westminster Abbey.

1. DESIGN FOR THE MONUMENT TO LORD CHATHAM IN THE GUILDHALL. "Lord Chatham is represented holding the Cap of Liberty, and leaning on a Rudder, the Emblem of his Office of Prime Minister. He is looking on the City with complacency, and the City is looking up to him and pointing to the Figure of Commerce, whom he is receiving into his Protection. The Quarters of the Globe form the Train of Commerce, and are pouring Plenty into the Lap of Britannia." (From the description on Bartolozzi's print of the monument.)

Indian ink with pen outlines; roy., $9\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{3}{4}$ in. (arched at the top).

An etching of the monument, by Bartolozzi, was published November 12th, 1779. It is placed with the drawing.

Purchased July, 1878.

2. AN EARLIER DESIGN FOR THE SAME MONUMENT. Lord Chatham and Commerce stand upon a rough-hewn arch, supported by corbels. The other figures are absent, and their introduction does not seem to have been intended in this scheme. There are some variations from the final design; Chatham is without the cap of Liberty, a fallen column and caduceus are introduced r., and Commerce is looking upward. Below is written: First sketch for Lord Chatham's monument. Original design by John Bacon, R.A.

Indian ink with pen outlines; roy., $17\frac{3}{4} \times 12\frac{3}{4}$ in.

3. DESIGN FOR A MONUMENT TO CAPTAIN JAMES MONTAGU. Design for a relief. The captain, in a suit of Roman armour, lies with his head supported on the knees of Fame, who, stepping across a lion, half concealed by British ensigns, endeavours to console him with a laurel wreath and palm branch. Behind, in the centre, is a column; the stern view of a ship, La Pique, and a weeping willow l.; and r., Britannia's shield suspended from an oak. The column is adorned with a frieze of ploughing, and surmounted by figures of nymphs joining hands round a beehive. Above, a female figure, a wand in her hand, reclines on a cloud and a rainbow, beneath a pair of scales, and is accompanied by an allegory of cherubs and machinery.

Indian ink with pen outlines; roy., $15\frac{1}{2} \times 11$ in.

James Montagu, Captain in the Navy, born 1752, served in the American War of Independence, in the East Indies, and against the French under Howe. He was killed in the battle off Ushant, 1st June, 1794.

Nos. 2 and 3 were purchased in January, 1886.

4. DESIGN FOR THE LOWER PART OF THE SAME RELIEF. The figures of Fame and of Montagu only. The dead captain's arm is employed to support the British ensigns, and a ship's cannon, with an anchor and rope, are substituted for the lion.

Indian ink with pen outlines; roy., $12\frac{3}{4} \times 16$ in.

5. ANOTHER DESIGN FOR THE SAME MONUMENT. A relief in two compartments. In the lower, Britannia is protecting Knowledge, a seated figure with lyre and zodiac, from the onslaught of revolutionary France, a female with torch and tricolour, trampling on a crown and sceptre; while in the background are portrayed her evil works. Behind Britannia, l., a child with the cap of Liberty, embracing a lamb, attentively regards a plough, a rake, a book, a palette, and other emblems of the peaceful arts; in the distance is a church. In the other compartment, a female figure, holding a sceptre in one hand and a scroll in the other, reclines on a cloud and smiles on the scene below. Cherubs, one with a horn of plenty, and some cog-wheels, typify industries and commerce. On a tablet below, surmounted by three Virtues, Capt. James Montagu, and on each side of the tablet, No. 2 and Mr. Bacon.

Indian ink with pen outlines; roy., $10\frac{1}{2} \times 14\frac{1}{2}$ in.

6. DESIGN FOR A TOMB. A tablet, left blank for an inscription, surmounted by an urn, with a figure of Time, above a medallion presenting in relief a mourning female, shown by the topmast in her hand and the compass by her knee to be a figure of Navigation. Below this, two horns of plenty tied with ribbons.

Indian ink and indigo with pen outlines; imp. upr., $19\frac{1}{2} \times 18\frac{3}{4}$ in.

Nos. 4-6 were purchased in July, 1878.

BAKER, Thomas, known as Baker of Leamington (b. 1809, d. 1869).
Landscape painter; worked chiefly in the Midland Counties.

1. KENILWORTH CASTLE. A meadow, with cattle feeding, sloping up to cottages, r.; l., a beech tree, and other trees beyond the meadow, behind which rises the Castle Keep. Signed, T. Baker.

Purchased October, 1885.

BALMER, George (d. 1846). Landscape painter; first a house painter (his father's trade); follower of Ewbank; worked at Newcastle; travelled in Holland, Switzerland, etc., and made much use of his foreign sketches; began 1836 a publication called 'The Ports and Harbours of England'; gave up painting 1842.

1. A SEA PIECE. Open sea under a coming storm; in the near distance, r., a three-decked man-of-war, at anchor, with topmasts struck, in front of which tacks a lugger, with another behind it, and a rowing boat to the r. Quite near, l., a buoy, and behind in the offing various vessels, dimmed by approaching rain.

Signed, Balmer.
Water colours; roy., $5\frac{3}{4}$ by $9\frac{1}{4}$ in.

Presented by Sir A. Wollaston Franks, October, 1891.

BARBER, R (?). (worked about 1775). The style of the following drawings does not correspond with that of Christopher Barber, the miniature painter, nor with that of any known painter of this name.

1. ILLUSTRATION TO STERNE'S 'SENTIMENTAL JOURNEY': DEPARTURE OF LA FLEUR. La Fleur bidding farewell to a weeping girl while he kisses her hand, before mounting his horse. Behind her, l., are three young women; and to the r. of him two more, near an old woman seated in the foreground on the step of a thatched building. Behind the group, the corner of an inn with three lilies on the signboard, and a window, from which a man is looking, in the wall, l.

Indian ink, very slightly tinted with water colours; oval; roy., 10×13 in.

2. ILLUSTRATION TO THE 'SENTIMENTAL JOURNEY': THE OLD MAN LAMENTING THE DEATH OF HIS ASS. The old man, seated on a bench, laments his ass, on whose saddle he leans his arm; r., a young man leaning by the wall and a servant coming from a door behind; l., La Fleur and two girls, and behind them a postchaise, and Yorick seated in it, listening and looking on.

Indian ink, very slightly tinted; oval; roy., 10×13 in.

Both purchased at the Percy sale, May, 1890.

BARKER, Thomas, known as Barker of Bath (b. 1769, d. 1847). Painter, etcher, and lithographer; born near Pontypool; studied at Rome, worked at Bath, painting landscapes and rustic scenes, some of which, especially 'The Woodman,' became at once very popular. His lithographs, of which a set was issued 1813 and another 1814, are in the department. Barker was entirely self-taught.

1. A HILLY LANDSCAPE. Beyond two converging wooded slopes, the distant view of a bare ridge, crowned by an isolated rock or building, behind which dark clouds threaten; in the foreground a field with sheep, and stunted trees and shrubs by the margin of a pool.

Water colours; roy., $8\frac{5}{8} \times 12$ in.

Purchased August, 1853.

2. LAKE OF KILLARNEY. The rocky shore of a lake, enclosed by hills, of which two towards the r. on the further side rise in conical peaks; above, a sky of broken cloud, with rays from a watery sunset.
Water colours; roy., $10\frac{3}{8} \times 13\frac{3}{8}$ in.
3. LANDSCAPE, WITH A SHEPHERD. A path between high, tree-hung banks, along which a shepherd comes with four sheep, carrying a lamb in his arms; behind him, a level space, with water among high rocks and woods.
Monochrome, slightly tinted; roy., $10\frac{1}{8} \times 14\frac{1}{8}$ in.
4. A MOUNTAIN LANDSCAPE. A valley among mountains, down which a stream comes r., crossed by a wooden bridge; l., a path; two figures on the bridge, and three more, one on a donkey, descending the path in the foreground.
Pen and sepia; roy., 11×16 in.
Nos. 2-4 were purchased October, 1872.
5. A SHEPHERD PIPING TO HIS FLOCK. He is sitting r. upon a bank. A slight sketch on the back of an admission ticket to 'Mr. Barker's Fresco at his Gallery, Sion Hill.' Signed on the front of the ticket, T.B.
The Fresco was an immense painting in Barker's house, representing the 'Inroad of the Turks upon Scio, April, 1822.'
Presented by J. H. Anderdon, Esq., April, 1875.
6. A VIEW IN SPAIN. A river among mountains; r., a castle on the spur of a high crag, descending l. to the stream, which is lost in a gorge under a pyramidal mountain. In the foreground the open shore, with two men by the water, and l. a tall crucifix and a tree on the top of a rugged knoll.
Purchased October, 1872.
7. BOY AND GIRL DANCING TOGETHER. An Italian youth and girl dancing, both barefooted; the boy playing castanets.
Reed pen and sepia, with sepia wash; $4\frac{1}{3} \times 3\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Inserted in Vol. X. of the interleaved Academy Catalogues, presented by J. H. Anderdon, Esq., November, 1867.

BARLOW, Francis (b. 1626?, d. 1702). Painter and etcher, chiefly of animal subjects; born in Lincolnshire, pupil of W. Sheppard, a portrait painter; painted ceilings of country houses with birds, etc.; produced a great number of studies of animal life, some of which were engraved by Hollar and Gaywood; and he himself etched the designs for Æsop, described below. He designed the hearse for General Monk's funeral, and made drawings of the funeral itself, the engravings from which, by R. White, are in the department.

1. ILLUSTRATION TO ÆSOP'S FABLE OF THE YOUNG MAN AND HIS CAT. A youth of effeminate appearance, fondling his cat, kneels on a balcony, supplicating Venus to transform it into a woman. She, with Cupid by her, newly alighted from her dove-drawn car, appears in the sky l., and grants his prayer. In a recess, r., a bed, from which the woman springs on seeing a mouse run along the floor.
This design was probably done for Barlow's edition of the Fables, but another was substituted in the book. See infra, No. 13 (86).
Indian ink; roy., $4\frac{7}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{8}$ in.
2. Two on one mount, roy., viz.:—
 - (a) GOATS AND SHEEP. On a mound in the centre, a he-goat; two goats l., and a ram with two sheep r., under a tree with a magpie and two tits; in the foreground, a mole.
Indian ink; $5\frac{1}{4} \times 8$ in.
Etched by Hollar (No. 2084 in Parthey's Catalogue).
 - (b) SWINE AND DONKEYS. A yard with a mound in the middle, on which is a boar; a sow lying l., and three pigs behind, one coming from a sty; r., two donkeys; and a man with a pitchfork looking over the palings into the yard.
Indian ink; $5\frac{3}{8} \times 8$ in.
Etched by Hollar (P. 2081).

3. Two on one mount, roy., viz.:—

- (a) BEARS. Two bears confronting each other, with two others behind, one of which, r., is climbing a palm tree.

Indian ink; $5\frac{3}{4} \times 8\frac{3}{4}$ in.

Etched by Hollar (P. 2083).

- (b) LEOPARDS AND LYNXES. Two leopards, one seen in front, the other turned towards a couple of lynxes; in the background a leopard, leaping on a stag.

Indian ink; $5\frac{3}{4} \times 8\frac{1}{4}$ in.

Etched by R. Gaywood.

4. STUDY OF DEER. A buck and a roe, side by side, moving towards the l., where another buck is feeding, and a hare sits in a listening attitude; r., two rabbits, and a tree with squirrels in the branches; five wild ducks flying l.

Etched by Hollar (P. 2087).

Nos. 1-4 were purchased July, 1855.

5. STUDY OF HORSES. A horse, turned towards the l.; behind him another horse rearing up on its hind legs; and a number of others in varied attitudes in an undulating meadow beyond, bordered with distant trees.

Indian ink; roy., $5\frac{5}{8} \times 8$ in.

Etched by Hollar, 1663 (P. 2085).

6. STUDY OF CATTLE. A cow grazing, turned to the r.; two oxen half seen behind her; two more further off in the field r., one lying down, the other feeding near a tree; in the distance a hill, crowned with a church spire.

Indian ink; roy., $5\frac{5}{8} \times 8$ in.

Etched by Hollar, 1659 (P. 2088).

7. HOUNDS. Five hounds, four of them coupled in pairs, a man with lifted stick hallooing r., and a hare running away over a little hill in the landscape behind.

Etched by Hollar (P. 2089).

8. STUDY OF DOGS AND A CAT. L., a mastiff, chained by the collar to his kennel, and showing his teeth; in the centre a greyhound surveying a cat r., which stands, with arched back and furious expression, on a low stone wall, while a spaniel barks at it, with forepaws on the wall. Signed,
- F. Barlow*

Indian ink; roy., $5\frac{5}{8} \times 8$ in.

Etched by Hollar (P. 2042); also in reverse, by R. Gaywood.

Nos. 5-8 were purchased June, 1875.

9. ILLUSTRATION TO EDWARD BENLOWES' 'THEOPHILA, OR LOVE'S SACRIFICE,' 1652. Theophila, besieged by deadly sins, in the shape of wild beasts, kneels and prays to a fountain with a cross above it, emblematic of Christ's sacrifice; behind, the Garden of Eden, with Adam and Eve being tempted and driven out.

Indian ink; roy., $7\frac{1}{2} \times 5\frac{5}{8}$ in.

Etched by Barlow for the book.

10. THE FOX AND THE EAGLE'S NEST. An eagle's nest, apparently in flames, on the top of a high rock; a fox tumbles from it on the approach of the parent birds. In the foreground, the mother fox and cubs in a hole under trees r.; beyond the trees, a smoking altar.

Pen and sepia, with Indian ink wash; roy., $3\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{3}{4}$ in.

11. PARTRIDGE STALKING. A field, with partridges in the foreground, and r., a man concealing himself behind a horse, which advances from under a tree; a dog r.; beyond, trees and a hill.

Indian ink; roy., $7\frac{7}{8} \times 11\frac{5}{8}$ in.

Etched by King.

Nos. 9-11 were purchased July, 1859.

12. AN EAGLE CARRYING OFF A DUCKLING. It soars in the air, grasping the duckling in its talons, while it bites at the head with its beak. R., a hill with a cottage among trees.

Pen and sepia, with Indian-ink wash; roy. upr., $5 \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.

An etching by Barlow of a similar subject, an eagle carrying off a cat, said to have been sketched from life in Scotland, is in the department.

Purchased August, 1874.

13. AN ALBUM containing drawings for 'Æsop's Life' and 'Æsop's Fables.' Those for the Fables were etched in reverse by Barlow himself, and published 1666. The title-page runs: "Æsop's Fables, with his Life, in English, French, and Latin. The English by Thos. Philipott, Esq., the French and Latin by Rob. Cudrington, M.A. Illustrated with one hundred and twelve sculptures by Francis Barlow. London, Printed...for Francis Barlow...MDCLXVI." The English of the Life only was done by Philipott; the versified English of the Fables was by Mrs. Aphara Behn. In 1657 the book was again issued, "illustrated by one hundred and twelve sculptures. To this Edition are likewise added thirty-one new figures representing his Life. By Francis Barlow." These new plates were etched in reverse by Thomas Dudley.

The following drawings, in pen and sepia or Indian ink, with Indian-ink wash, with the exception of thirty-six, specified in their places, were purchased from Miss Hanks in April, 1867.

- (1) ORNAMENTAL TITLE. An oval, with various animals in a border. A title has been inserted in a later hand.
In the edition of 1666 the title within the oval has the date 1665.
- (2) ÆSOP CONVICTING HIS FELLOW-SERVANTS OF HAVING EATEN THE FIGS. This, and all other drawings for the Life, have a space below in the border for the verses; with ruled lines in pencil, and the number of the plate. On nearly all is written "printing," and on many "Mr. Dolman," probably the name of the letter-engraver.
- (3) ÆSOP ENTERTAINING THE PRIESTS OF DIANA.
- (4) ÆSOP ASKING THE MERCHANT TO TAKE HIM INTO HIS SERVICE.
- (5) ÆSOP CARRYING THE BASKET OF BREAD.
- (6) ÆSOP BOUGHT BY THE PHILOSOPHER XANTHUS.
- (7) XANTHUS PRESENTING HIM TO HIS HORRIFIED WIFE.
- (8) ÆSOP RESOLVING FOR XANTHUS THE GARDENER'S PUZZLE.
- (9) ÆSOP, ORDERED BY XANTHUS TO TAKE A DISH TO HER THAT LOVES HIM MOST, TAKES IT TO HIS DOG INSTEAD OF TO HIS WIFE.
- (10) ÆSOP, BY ANNOUNCING A SECOND WEDDING FOR HIS MASTER, COMPELS HIS WIFE TO RETURN HOME.
- (11) ÆSOP, ORDERED TO SERVE A DINNER OF THE BEST, SERVES UP TONGUES FOR EVERY COURSE.
- (12) ORDERED TO SERVE A MEAL OF THE WORST, HE SERVES UP TONGUES AGAIN.
- (13) "THE MAN WHO REGARDED NOTHING" SHOWING NO DISCOMPOSURE AT XANTHUS CONDEMNING HIS WIFE TO BE BURNT, AND ASKING TO ADD HIS OWN WIFE TO THE FLAMES.
- (14) ÆSOP AND THE BATHERS.
(Here the design for Æsop being taken to prison is missing).
- (15) XANTHUS OFFERING TO DRINK THE SEA, IF THE RIVERS ARE PREVENTED FROM FLOWING INTO IT.
- (16) ÆSOP BEATEN BY XANTHUS FOR SAYING HE HAD SEEN TWO CROWS, WHEN ONLY ONE WAS IN SIGHT.
(Here the design for Æsop exposing his mistress to shame is missing.)
- (17) ÆSOP, COMMANDED TO LET NO GUESTS IN BUT THE WISE MEN, SENDS ALL BUT ONE AWAY BY ASKING THEM A QUESTION.
- (18) HE INTERPRETS AN INSCRIPTION FOR XANTHUS, AND FINDS A TREASURE.
- (19) HE INTERPRETS TO THE SAMIANS THE INCIDENT OF THE EAGLE AND THE PUBLIC RING, AND GAINS THEREBY HIS FREEDOM.
- (20) HIS ARRIVAL BEFORE KING CREESUS.
- (21) ÆSOP, BEARING AN OLIVE BRANCH FROM CREESUS, WELCOMED BY THE REJOICING SAMIANS.
- (22) ÆSOP, RECEIVED INTO HIGH FAVOUR BY LYCERUS, KING OF BABYLON, IS FALSELY ACCUSED BY HIS ADOPTED SON.
- (23) CONDEMNED TO DEATH, HE IS HIDDEN IN A TOMB, AND FED BY HERMIPPUS.

- (24) ÆSOP BROUGHT OUT OF THE TOMB AND RECEIVED INTO FAVOUR AGAIN.
- (25) HIS ADOPTED SON, HAVING BEEN FORGIVEN AND ADMONISHED BY ÆSOP, HURLING HIMSELF FROM A CLIFF IN REMORSE FOR HIS TREACHERY.
(Here is missing the design of Æsop showing the children, suspended by four eagles in baskets, to the King of Egypt.)
- (26) ÆSOP SHOWN HIS OWN STATUE.
Mrs. Aphara Behn's verses under the print of this design run :—
*Blest be thy name, O King, who thus hast set
So just a value on immortal witt.
In this dull age no statues are allow'd,
But Dryden too must fall ith' undistinguished crowd.*
(Here is missing the design of Æsop charged with stealing Apollo's golden cup.)
- (27) ÆSOP, AFTER IN VAIN RECITING THREE APOLOGUES, FLUNG OVER A CLIFF BY THE DELPHIANS.
- (28) THE MONUMENT RAISED TO ÆSOP'S MEMORY BY THE PLAGUE-STRICKEN DELPHIANS.
Mrs. Behn's verses to this design run :—
*Then did not our ungratfull Brittish brood,
To expiat, for guiltless Royall blood,
Had we thy sacred name great Charles imortall made,
We'd shund those Plagues, the wiser delphians stayd.*

BARON, Bernard (b. about 1700, d. 1766). Engraver; born in Paris, pupil of Tardieu, came to England, where he worked till his death: best known by his large portrait pieces after Vandyck.

1. JOHN COUNT OF NASSAU AND FAMILY AFTER VANDYCK. The Count and Countess sit between two pillars; the young son leans by his mother, and the three young daughters stand before them r. Signed and dated B. Baron delt. 1760, Vandyck pinx.

Red chalk and pencil; ant., $20\frac{1}{2} \times 18$ in.

Vandyck's picture, dated 1634, is in the collection of Lord Cowper, at Panshanger.

Purchased January, 1872.

BARRALET, John James (d. 1812). Painter; born in Ireland, of French extraction; worked at Dublin, where he practised as a teacher. Emigrated in 1793 to Philadelphia, where he designed a number of illustrations to books, chiefly on Irish antiquities.

Water colours; roy., $14 \times 11\frac{1}{4}$ in.

2. VIEW ON A RIVER. A river, probably the Dodder, crossed by a light wooden bridge, the road over which comes into the foreground, r., beside the stream; four oxen and a goat come along the road, and an angler on the bank shows a fish, just caught, to a youth and girl standing by. Beyond the bridge, the river winds under wooded hills. Signed John James Barralet, Dublin.

Water colours; roy., $11\frac{3}{8} \times 16\frac{1}{4}$ in.

Nos. 1-2 were purchased in June, 1886.

3. RUINS OF MING END BRIDGE, DUBLIN. The remains of a stone bridge, the arch of which has collapsed into the water beneath; a railed plank connects the two ends, and over it pass women and children, while other groups wait to cross r., and prepare to descend the ruined structure l. The stream, in which a boat lies r., near the bridge, winds out through sand to the sea; the masts of a ship rise l., and sheds and fishing boats, one of them building on the stocks, r. Signed and dated J. J. Barralet, Dublin, 1786. Ruins of Ming End Bridge.

Sepia; imp., $14\frac{3}{4} \times 21$ in.

Purchased August, 1861.

BARRET, George I., R.A. (b. 1728[32], d. 1784). Landscape painter and etcher; born in Dublin, and worked there, gaining early the notice of Burke; came in 1762 to London, and achieved a great success; he was one of the original members of the Royal Academy, and the fashionable landscape painter of his day.

1. LANDSCAPE WITH FIGURES. A torrent foaming from rocky, tree-hung heights, crowned with a castle, r., into a deep hollow, the view of which is intercepted by a high bank in the foreground, l. A road leads down to the hollow, and a shepherd drives his sheep along it, while a man and woman are seated at the roadside, r.; in the distance, a wooded plain and an isolated mountain.

Water colours; $14\frac{1}{4} \times 20\frac{3}{4}$ in.

Purchased August, 1861.

BARRET, George II. (b. 1767[8], d. 1842). Painter; son of the preceding; exhibited at the Royal Academy 1795-1803; one of the first members of the Society of Painters in Water Colours; published in 1840 a book on Water Colour Painting; excelled in classical landscapes.

1. LANDSCAPE COMPOSITION. A hollow between two slopes, that on the r. thickly grown with trees: disclosing a wooded plain, with part of a viaduct at the bottom of the hollow.
Sepia; roy., $5 \times 10\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Purchased August, 1861.
2. CLASSICAL LANDSCAPE; MOONRISE. A broad stream, across which is seen, framed by trees, a town with a bridge, and a castellated building r., with the full moon rising over it; on the near bank, a group of men and women landing from boats.
Water colours; roy., $8\frac{1}{8} \times 8\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Purchased June, 1886.
3. (a) SEA VIEW FROM THE ISLE OF WIGHT. Open ground with cottages among trees, and the sea beyond; l., a road, leading under shady elms.
Water colours; roy., $3\frac{7}{8} \times 10\frac{3}{4}$ in.
(b) VIEW ALONG THE COAST, ISLE OF WIGHT. Broken cliffs l., sloping to the sea, which stretches r., beyond some low hills with huts; in the foreground, l., some cattle near a pond.
Water colours; roy., $3\frac{7}{8} \times 10\frac{3}{4}$ in.
Purchased October, 1886.

BARRET, James (worked about 1785–1819). Painter; brother of the preceding; painted landscapes in oil and water colour; exhibited at Royal Academy from 1785–1819.

1. LANDSCAPE COMPOSITION. A river, with the ruin of a wall, pierced by three lancet windows, projecting into it; on the low banks, l., two stone-pines, and on a sandy spit three oxen. Mountains in the distance.
Water colours; roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 11\frac{1}{8}$ in.
2. LANDSCAPE COMPOSITION. The rock-strewn shore of a bay with breakers foaming r., intercepted l. by a piece of masonry on which stand three columns and a fragment of the architrave of a ruined temple. Across the water a line of hills, and white buildings on the coast.
Water colours; roy., $7\frac{3}{4} \times 11\frac{1}{4}$ in.
Both purchased at the Cheney sale, May, 1885.

BARRON, William Augustus (worked about 1764–1791). Painter and etcher; pupil of William Tomkins; exhibited landscapes, chiefly views, at the Royal Academy from 1774–1777.

1. VIEW OF RICHMOND BRIDGE IN 1776. A view from the Surrey shore below the bridge, represented in course of construction, and looking to Richmond Hill, with houses l.; in a boat, r., a fisherman hauling in his net. Signed and dated W. A. Barron, date 1778. Richmond Bridge, as in August, 1776.
Pen and Indian ink; roy., $11\frac{1}{4} \times 15\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Purchased July, 1874.

BARROW, Joseph Charles, F.S.A. (worked about 1789–1797). Painter and antiquary; exhibited at the Society of Arts; did landscapes and architectural views; kept a drawing school, and taught Louis Francia and John Varley. Published, 1790–93, a set of Views of Churches, engraved by G. J. Parkyns.

1. VIEW OF CROYLAND ABBEY. A ruined window, through which the tower and spire appear; in the foreground, groups of figures. Underneath the view a tablet formed by part of a Norman arch, with spandrels, inscribed Croyland Abbey, Lincolnshire. Signed J. C. Barrow.
Indian ink, with pen outlines, slightly tinted in water colours; roy., $5 \times 3\frac{1}{8}$ in.
Purchased May, 1890, at the Percy sale.

2. VIEW OF COWES CASTLE, ISLE OF WIGHT. The low buildings of the Castle, with the British ensign flying above the embrasures, stand close on the beach, with a few trees around them; r. the Solent, bounded by low shores; in the foreground a breakwater, and a boat with three men in it, and l. on some rocks three figures, one of whom has a fishing-rod.

Indian ink wash over pencil; imp., $13\frac{3}{4} \times 18$ in.

Purchased October, 1872.

3. VIEW ON THE THAMES IN THE GREAT FROST OF 1789. The river below London Bridge, entirely frozen over and imprisoning the shipping. In the foreground, l., the bows of a ship forced out of the water; round it several boats on the ice; r., a group of vessels half seen, and near the farther shore a barque. Various parties of citizens, ladies, soldiers and sailors, moving on the frozen surface. Signed and dated J. C. Barrow, 1789.

Indian ink with pen outlines, tinted in water colours; imp., $13\frac{3}{4} \times 19\frac{1}{2}$ in.

Purchased January, 1865.

BARRY, James, R.A. (b. 1741, d. 1806). Painter, etcher, and lithographer; born at Cork; studied under West, of Dublin; gained the friendship of Burke and Reynolds; studied in Italy; elected R.A. in 1773; made a proposal for the decoration of St. Paul's by Academicians, which fell through, but his offer to decorate the Society of Arts room was accepted, 1777, and the immense work, representing the History of Human Culture, finished in 1783; appointed Professor of Painting to the Academy, 1782, but used his position to make war on the members, and was expelled from the Society, 1799. He published in 1808 etchings from the Society of Arts pictures; these are in the department.

1. NUDE STUDY. A nude male figure standing with one arm outstretched to the l. Signed Jas. Barry, del.

Reed pen and ink on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., $20 \times 10\frac{1}{2}$ in. Apparently a study for Adam in a picture by Barry, etched by himself.

Reed pen and ink on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., $17\frac{3}{8} \times 12\frac{1}{2}$ in.

Nos. 1 and 2 were acquired before 1837.

3. STUDY FROM THE HOLY FAMILY, CALLED THE 'HOLY FAMILY OF THE OAK,' OR, 'OF THE LIZARD,' ASCRIBED TO RAPHAEL. The Virgin, seated under an oak tree, holds on her knee the Child, who looks up to her as he takes a scroll from the young St. John, while Joseph looks on r.
Pen and Indian ink wash over red chalk; roy., $12\frac{3}{4} \times 10\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Probably copied from one of the numerous copies of the original picture at Madrid, itself now generally ascribed to Giulio Romano.
There is in the department an etching, apparently from this drawing, signed Arch. Macduff, sculpt.; in a second reworked state this signature is covered with lines and J.B. added.
4. STUDY FOR A NARCISSUS. The nude figure of a young man reclining on his right elbow, his left arm raised, and his eyes looking down to the r. Signed James Barry, delt., London. Narcissus.
Pencil; roy., $6\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$ in.
5. CHRISTIANITY OVERTHROWING IDOLATRY. A warrior, nearly naked, alighting with spear and shield from a cloud, and advancing upon the dismayed and fallen figure of an old man, who cries out, with arms uplifted, beside a burning tripod, r.
Indian ink wash with pen outlines; roy., $16\frac{1}{8} \times 12$ in.
6. STUDY FOR AN 'ECCE HOMO.' Christ, a youthful, almost beardless, figure stands on a high platform l., with Pilate and two other figures behind him, r. a crowd, with hands raised in protestation, and among them in the foreground a woman with her child; beneath the platform, l., two lictors. Signed J. Barry Invt.
Sepia with pen outlines; roy., $17\frac{1}{2} \times 10\frac{1}{4}$ in.
Nos. 3-6 were presented by J. H. Anderdon, Esq., June, 1868.
7. DESIGN FOR BEATTIE'S 'MINSTREL.' Under a high rock, tufted with grass and shrubs, an old man in loose robes, one hand resting on a harp, and the other outstretched towards a shepherd boy r., who advances with hat and crook in his hand and with bent head; behind the old man, a stag plucks at some foliage l.
Indian ink with pen outlines; roy., $18 \times 12\frac{7}{8}$ in.
8. THE TWO DISCIPLES AT EMMAUS. One of them kneels on one knee, l., averting his face and raising his arms, the other stands over him with an attitude of awed wonder on the disappearing figure of Christ.
Indian ink; roy., $18 \times 12\frac{3}{4}$ in.
Nos. 7 and 8 were presented by Mrs. Jones, January, 1872.
9. STUDY OF A MAN ATTACKED BY A LION. A naked man holding to the stump of a tree with one hand, and grasping with the other the mane of a lion, which seizes the back of his neck in its teeth.
Pen and sepia with Indian ink wash; imp., $18\frac{5}{8} \times 15\frac{1}{4}$ in.
Purchased February, 1852.
10. STUDY OF A HEAD OF NEPTUNE. A bearded head, with a kind of cap falling over the right ear; the long moustaches end in dolphins' heads. Perhaps from a sculptured head or mask; the eyes are blank.
Sepia and Indian ink with pen outlines; imp., $22\frac{5}{8} \times 12\frac{3}{4}$ in.
11. STUDY FOR THE PICTURE OF MILTON DICTATING HIS POEMS. The poet sits in an armchair l., dictating to an amanuensis who sits at a table r., while one of his daughters, standing on some steps by a bookshelf behind him, listens attentively.
Indian ink wash and reed pen; atl., $27 \times 19\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Etched by the artist, with variations.
12. SATAN CALLING TO HIS LEGIONS. Satan, standing naked on the edge of a rock, with spear and shield uplifted, while his legions throng behind him shouting acclamations. Signed J. Barry, R.A., P.P., Invt.
Indian ink wash and reed pen; atl. upr., $27 \times 19\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Etched by the artist.

13. STUDY OF PART OF THE PICTURE CALLED 'ELYSIUM' IN THE SOCIETY OF ARTS SERIES. A number of Angelic Guards are seated l., and in the foreground r., looking over into the pit of the damned. Behind, a group of Patrons of the Arts, such as Charles I. and Francis I.; above them, in the clouds, a group of painters, among whom is Sir Joshua Reynolds, are examining designs in the company of angels.

Indian ink wash and reed pen; atl., $26\frac{1}{4} \times 19\frac{1}{2}$ in.

This design, which differs considerably from the corresponding portion of the picture, was etched by the artist, and published with the etchings from the Society of Arts series in 1808.

14. ALLEGORICAL DESIGN OF THE UNION OF GEORGE III. AND QUEEN CHARLOTTE.

A medallion of the heads of the king and queen hangs on an altar, on which is a crown and sceptre. Behind the altar are three female figures, two to the r. clasping hands, while a dove descends on the third, who has wings, and carries Britannia's shield and the Welsh harp in her arms. L., a prophet dictating to a recording angel, and above them routed Furies in flight. Inscribed, Perhaps my first thought was better. viz., a larger medallion on y^e face of y^e altar, and y^e subject to be y^e father and his sons and y^e bundle of sticks wch could not be broken whilst in a bundle, and y^e heads of y^e King and Queen on medals suspended or attached to y^e fillet (b) wch binds on y^e crown, and also on medals suspended from y^e necks of y^e two figures Britannia. . . .

Indian ink wash and reed pen; atl., $27\frac{3}{8} \times 19\frac{1}{2}$ in.

15. A SIMILAR DESIGN OF THE SAME SUBJECT. The same design with a few variations. A pair of scales, with a heart in each, hangs over the angel and below the dove; the medallion is more elaborate, and the festoons on the altar larger. Signed James Barry.

Indian ink wash and reed pen; atl., $27\frac{1}{2} \times 19\frac{5}{8}$ in.

Nos. 10-15 were presented by J. H. Anderdon, Esq., in June, 1868.

16. STUDY FOR THE COMPLETE PICTURE OF 'ELYSIUM, OR THE STATE OF FINAL RETRIBUTION.' At the top of the composition, l., are adoring cherubs, and farther off, female figures absorbed in glory. Below is a group of the most famous men of science, to whom two angels expound the solar system; next is Columbus, and with him various philosophers; next, r., Harvey and Boyle, and a group of legislators, and on the extreme r. patrons of art and science. In front of the last group sit angelic guards and an archangel holding a balance, with a face denoting "great concern at the preponderance of evil:" the rocks, which they occupy, overhang the damned in Tartarus. Above, in the centre, are poets, and other famous writers in a second circle; more to the r. are painters.

Reed pen and sepia, with Indian ink wash; ant., $15\frac{3}{8} \times 37\frac{1}{4}$ in.

Etched by the artist, and published in the 'Series of Etchings,' 1808.

17. STUDY FOR THE PICTURE OF THE VICTORS OF OLYMPIA. The victors in the games passing in procession before the judges, who are seated r. behind a statue of Athene. Among the victors, two youths who are carrying their father, Diagoras of Rhodes, on their shoulders. A little behind, Pericles, in the likeness of the elder Pitt, talks to Socrates and the poets; at the extreme l. a statue of Heracles, with Barry in the character of Timanthus, seated on its base; and beyond the raised seats of the amphitheatre, a temple, with a procession approaching it.

Reed pen and sepia, and Indian ink; ant., $15\frac{3}{8} \times 37\frac{1}{4}$ in.

Etched by the artist, and published 1808.

Nos. 16 and 17 were presented by John Power Hicks, Esq., April, 1879.

18. 'THE JEWISH HIGH PRIEST, FROM WHISTON'S JOSEPHUS.' A small whole length figure inscribed with above title.

Pen and ink; $7\frac{5}{8} \times 4$ in.

Inserted in Vol. I. of the interleaved Academy Catalogues, presented by J. H. Anderdon, Esq., November, 1867.

BARTH, J. S. (worked about 1807-1808). Painter and aquatint engraver; exhibited a landscape at the Royal Academy in 1808.

1. BIRD'S-EYE VIEW OF GOLDEN LANE BREWERY, CRIPPLEGATE, 1807. Signed J. S. Barth.

In Portfolio XXV. of the Crace Collection of London Views, purchased in November, 1880.

BARTHOLOMEW, Anne Charlotte (b. 1800, d. 1862). Painter and authoress; born in Norfolk, the daughter of Arnall Fayerman; published a farce, a play and some poems; married in 1827, Walter Turnbull, the composer, and 1840 Valentine Bartholomew, the flower painter; worked chiefly at miniature painting.

1. STUDY OF A GARDEN POPPY. A purple and white poppy with its bud; drops of dew upon the flower and leaves.

Water colours; roy.-upr., 9½ × 6½ in.

Purchased August, 1875.

BARTLETT, William Henry (b. 1809, d. 1854). Draughtsman, born in London, apprenticed to John Britton, the architect, who employed him to make drawings in various parts of England, some of them appearing, 1828–30, in Britton's 'Picturesque Antiquities of English Cities'; he travelled in Europe and the East, also in America, and his sketches were published in a great number of well-known books of travel and topography.

1. VIEW OF HULL DOCK. R., a wharf, with boats alongside, extending to a swing bridge, which leads to a building yard, with a ship half built, and behind it houses and a windmill. Inscribed Bartlett in pencil, and Hull Dock, Yorkshire, in ink.

Indian ink and sepia over pencil; roy., 8½ × 12¾ in.

Purchased at the Cheney sale, May, 1885.

2. THE SOUTH FRONT OF BOW BRIDGE IN 1832. Water in foreground, and old houses beyond the bridge.

Sepia; 7 × 11 in.

In Portfolio XXXIII. of the Crace Collection of London Views, purchased November, 1880.

BARTOLOZZI, Francesco, R.A. (b. 1727, d. 1815). Engraver, designer and painter; born in Florence, and studied design at the Florentine Academy; learnt engraving at Venice; came to England 1764 on the invitation of George III.'s librarian, became engraver to the king, and was elected R.A. 1769. Bartolozzi took up the stipple method of engraving invented by Demarteau and brought it into extraordinary vogue, producing a vast mass of work, in which he was latterly helped by numerous pupils.

1. CHRIST AMONG THE DOCTORS; AFTER, OR IN THE MANNER OF, GUERCINO. The boy Jesus sits l., on a raised seat, with hand uplifted, addressing two Rabbis below him l.; to the r. a group of three Rabbis dispute over a passage in the scriptures, a fourth standing behind in the centre, and a fifth approaching r., behind whom a door in an arch appears: beyond a partition with pillars, are heads of men listening.

Pen and bistre wash; roy., 11¼ × 17¼ in.

Bequeathed by the Rev. C. M. Cracherode, 1799.

2. MRS. RAIMBACH, WHEN A CHILD, ASLEEP. A baby lying on a bed, its head on a broad pillow, seen foreshortened with feet in front. Inscribed F. Bartolozzi, R.A.

Red and black chalk; roy., 8½ × 7¼ in.

Mrs. Raimbach was wife of Abraham Raimbach [q.v.], the engraver.

3. PORTRAIT OF A LADY. Half length, full face, in a cap, with l. arm resting in front of her on a table. Inscribed F. Bartolozzi, R.A.
Red and black chalks; roy., $9 \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Nos. 2 and 3 were purchased from Miss Raimbach, March, 1851.
4. HEAD OF JULIA DOMNA, WIFE OF SEVERUS. From one of the 'Marlborough Gems.' Inscribed Bartolozzi del.
Pencil; roy., 4×3 in.
Engraved by the artist. 'Marlborough Gems,' Vol. I., Plate xxiv.
Purchased May, 1856, at the Rogers sale.
5. HEAD OF PTOLEMY. From one of the 'Marlborough Gems.' Inscribed Bartolozzi del.
Pencil; roy., $4 \times 3\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Engraved by the artist in the 'Marlborough Gems,' Vol. II., Plate I.
Bequeathed by Felix Slade, Esq., August, 1868.
6. PORTRAIT OF COLONEL NAPIER. Half-length, the eyes full, the head and body turned slightly to the r.; in uniform; curtain behind. Inscribed Colonel Napier (Major), by Bartolozzi.
Red and black chalks; roy., $8\frac{3}{4} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
George Napier, son of the fifth Lord Napier, was born at Edinburgh in 1751, and served as captain in the American War of Independence, when he was reputed to be one of the handsomest men in the army; later he held a command in Ireland, during the rebellion, and died at Clifton in 1804.
Purchased October, 1870.
7. SHEEP-SHEARING. On a knoll rising gently to a clump of trees l., a shepherdess, in the act of shearing a sheep, looks up to another girl, who, helped by a young boy, brings a ram from the l.; another boy r. holds the basket for the wool; a shorn lamb stands behind; and at a little distance a shepherd drives the flock in a field, beyond which appears a village church. Inscribed Bartolozzi.
Black and red chalks; roy., $12 \times 9\frac{3}{4}$ in.
Purchased May, 1885, at the Cheney sale.
8. FIGURE STUDIES. A nude female figure seated, looking r. with r. hand raised as if to play a lyre; at the r. two women's heads, the upper one in profile, the lower one in three-quarter face, looking down.
Red chalk; roy., $9\frac{1}{4} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$ in.
9. Ob. ACADEMICAL STUDY. A nude woman, standing, seen in front, and looking up l. in a listening attitude; her l. arm resting on a tree trunk, her r. hand lightly raised across her breast.
Red and black chalks; roy., $16\frac{3}{4} \times 10\frac{3}{8}$ in.
Rev. ACADEMICAL STUDY. A nude man, seen in front, kneeling with his r. knee on a pedestal and pulling with both hands raised as at a rope, the face looking r. A separate study for the head, with a beard, to the r.
Black chalk.
10. Ob. STUDIES OF A MUSE. A study of a nude woman, seated, turned r., leaning with elbow on a rock, and looking down pensively; above l., a similar figure looking up r. In the lower r. corner, a study of a head with flowing hair.
Red chalk; roy., $13\frac{3}{8} \times 9\frac{1}{8}$ in.
Rev. STUDY OF A MUSE. She sits in a similar position to that of the figures just described, her r. hand on a book, looking slightly l.; below, a smaller and slighter study for the same figure; and r. a head in profile.
Red chalk.
11. ACADEMICAL STUDY. Nude study of a man seated, seen in front, his r. foot on the ground, his l. knee raised and both hands resting on it; the face looking up to the l.
Black chalk; roy., $14\frac{3}{8} \times 10\frac{1}{4}$ in.
12. ACADEMICAL STUDY. Nude study of a man, seen in front, reclining with head thrown back and r. arm above it, the r. knee raised.
Red and black chalks; roy., $16\frac{3}{4} \times 10\frac{1}{4}$ in.
13. STUDY FOR A PICTURE. Nude study of a man in the attitude of one starting up from sleep, looking up r., with l. arm raised; at the r., two slight studies for the head only; and below, a woman's head and bust.
Red chalk; roy., $9 \times 12\frac{3}{4}$ in.

Red chalk; roy., $10\frac{1}{2} \times 18\frac{1}{4}$ in.

15. Ob. ACADEMICAL STUDY. Nude study of a girl, seen in profile, reclining towards the r., with l. arm over her head, and looking down with a dreamy expression.

Red chalk; roy., $10 \times 14\frac{1}{2}$ in.

Rev. ACADEMICAL STUDY. Nude figure of a woman, seen from behind, moving r., with both hands raised above her head.

Black chalk.

16. ACADEMICAL STUDY. Nude study of a man, seen from behind, pressing on a lever; two girls' heads below.

Charcoal and stump, and black chalk; roy., $17\frac{3}{4} \times 10\frac{3}{8}$ in.

17. Ob. ACADEMICAL STUDY. Nude study of a man, seen in front, leaning with l. arm on a pillar, which he grasps with his r. hand.

Black chalk on prepared grey paper; roy., $18\frac{3}{4} \times 10\frac{3}{8}$ in.

Rev. ACADEMICAL STUDY. Rough study of a nude man, seen in profile, moving r., with hands raised to his face.

Black chalk on prepared gray paper.

Nos. 8–17 were purchased April, 1886.

Attributed to Bartolozzi and Paul Sandby.

18. A COUNTRY FÊTE. A youth and girl dancing in a grassy space among trees, with a cottage and church behind; near the couple l., a tall figure tripping by himself; and in the foreground a boy reclining on the lap of a girl, with another girl behind them.

Per and bistre wash, over pencil; roy., $7\frac{1}{8} \times 9\frac{1}{8}$ in.

This drawing is of doubtful authorship, neither the hand of Bartolozzi nor that of Sandby being very recognizable in it. Zuccarelli would perhaps be a nearer guess.

Purchased July, 1878.

BARTOLOZZI, Gaetano Stephen (b. 1757, d. 1821). Engraver, eldest son of Francesco Bartolozzi, followed his father to England, and lived there till 1797, when he went to live in Paris, and died there; engraved a few plates. Madame Vestris was his daughter.

1. PORTRAIT OF GEORGE, VISCOUNT MACARTNEY; AFTER H. EDRIDGE. Half-length, the face in three-quarters, turned l., the eyes full; star on breast. Inscribed F. Bartolozzi.

Red and black chalk; roy., $6\frac{3}{8} \times 5\frac{1}{8}$ in.

George, Earl Macartney, born 1736, in Ireland, was distinguished both as a diplomatist and as a colonial governor; was envoy to Russia 1764, governor of Madras 1781–1786, and in 1792 was sent on the embassy to China, by which he is best known; died at Chiswick 1806.

Engraved by the artist.

Purchased July, 1876.

BAUGNIET, Charles (b. 1814, d. 1886). Draughtsman, lithographer and etcher; born in Brussels and studied painting there under Paelinck; afterwards worked in England and exhibited lithographs in London between 1847 and 1870; best known by his lithographed portraits, a large collection of which is in the department.

1. PORTRAIT OF SIR JULIUS BENEDICT. Half-length directed r., face turned full, eyes looking a little l.

Water colours; roy., $9\frac{3}{4} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.

Lithographed by the artist 1844, and also used in a portrait-group of musicians, called 'The First Reading of a New Work,' lithographed in 1852. Sir Julius Benedict was born at Stuttgart in 1804, and after studying music and producing some operas in Germany and Italy, came to London in 1835 and worked there till his death in 1885; knighted 1871; best known by his opera 'The Lily of Killarney.'

Purchased April, 1892.

BAXTER, Thomas (b. 1782, d. 1821). China painter, draughtsman and engraver; born in Worcester; studied at the Royal Academy; painted on china after Reynolds and other painters; founded an art school in London, 1814; worked at Swansea and again at Worcester. A book of outlines of ancient costumes, designed and engraved by him, is in the department.

1. DESIGN MADE FOR EDWARD JONES, THE KING'S BARD. A harp surrounded by a crown and the Prince of Wales' feathers, enclosed in a cross. Inscribed Edward Jones, the Welsh Bard.

Indian ink, with pen outlines; roy., $9 \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.

Presented by John Deffett Francis, Esq., August, 1877.

Edward Jones (b. 1752, d. 1824) first became celebrated as a harpist, and was appointed bard to the Prince of Wales in 1783. He published books on the music and poetry of old Wales, besides original music.

BAYNES, Frederick T. (worked about 1833-1864). Painter; worked in London as a painter of fruit; exhibited at the Royal Academy and Suffolk Street Galleries.

1. APPLE AND GRAPES, A STUDY. A red-cheeked apple, a few grapes, and a spray of bramble leaves, on a mossy bank. Signed F. T. Baynes.

Water colours and body colours; roy., $8\frac{3}{4} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.

2. PLUM AND HEDGE-SPARROW'S NEST. A hedge-sparrow's nest with three eggs in it, and a fourth on the ground, near a plum. Signed F. T. Baynes.

Water colours and body colours; roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.

Both purchased August, 1877.

BAYNES, James (b. 1766, d. 1837). Landscape painter; born at Kirkby Lonsdale; a pupil of Romney, and a student at the Royal Academy, where he exhibited from 1796 till his death; taught drawing, and painted views in various parts of England.

1. VIEW NEAR A LAKE. A road by the borders of a lake, overshadowed with trees; a flock of sheep coming along the road, with a man on horseback behind; by the lake, l., two anglers.

Water colours; roy., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 13\frac{1}{8}$ in.

2. LANDSCAPE WITH FIGURES. A shady pool to which sheep descend from a field beyond; bes de it, l., a winding path, on which are two men, one with a scythe; and between a clump of trees in the middle of the field, and a high bank overhanging the path, the view of a village and blue distant hills.

Water colours; roy., $7\frac{1}{2} \times 12$ in.

Both purchased August, 1877.

BAYNES, Thomas Mann (b. 1794, d. after 1852). Painter and lithographer; worked in London as a topographical artist; exhibited chiefly at the Royal Academy, between 1811 and 1852; published 1823 two sets of lithographs of London and Edinburgh views, both in the department.

1. THE VALE OF CONWAY. A view on the r. bank of the river below Llanrwst, looking north; r., a road, with some peasants conversing across a low wall, follows the high banks above the stream; on the further side, pastures, with cattle in the fields and in the shallows, rising abruptly into cliffs. In the distance, across the mouth of the valley, the distant mass of Penmaenmawr. Signed T. M. Baynes, 1833.

Water colours; roy., 10 × 14 in.

Purchased August, 1877.

BEALE, Charles (b. 1660). Painter; son of Mary Beale; studied under Thomas Flatman, and assisted his mother in the backgrounds of some of her portraits; ceased to paint after 1689, owing to weak sight. The following studies are all in red chalk, in which material the artist worked in the same somewhat heavy and emphatic manner of drawing as his mother.

1. HEAD OF A MAN. The head of a young man with a beard, turned r., three-quarter face; apparently a study after Rubens. Signed with monogram.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
2. STUDY FROM A STATUETTE OF THE INFANT HERCULES STRANGLING A SERPENT. Front view. Signed with monogram.
Roy., $5\frac{3}{4} \times 7$ in.
3. STUDY FROM THE SAME STATUETTE. Side view. Signed with monogram.
Roy., $7\frac{3}{8} \times 5\frac{3}{8}$ in.
4. STUDY FROM THE SAME STATUETTE. From an angle between the two former views. Signed with monogram.
Roy., $7\frac{3}{4} \times 6\frac{5}{8}$ in.
5. STUDY FROM A STATUETTE OF A NAKED BOY SKATING. The figure turned r. Signed with monogram.
Roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{4}$ in.
6. STUDY FROM THE SAME STATUETTE. The figure turned l. Signed with monogram.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$ in.
7. STUDY FROM THE SAME STATUETTE. Front view. Signed with monogram.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{4} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$ in.
8. STUDY FROM A STATUE OF FORTUNE. A naked female figure, leaning one foot on a rudder, and with a globe at her feet; the head wanting. Signed with monogram.
Roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{5}{8}$ in.
9. STUDY FROM A STATUE OF FORTUNE. A naked female figure, seated, and holding a rudder behind her. Signed with monogram.
10. STUDY FROM THE SAME STATUE. Back view. Signed with monogram.
Roy., $9\frac{5}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$ in.
11. STUDY FROM A PICTURE. A boy's head, with curly locks, looking up to the r. Signed with monogram.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$ in.

All bequeathed by the Rev. C. M. Cracherode, 1799.

Mary and Charles Beale. The following unsigned drawings in red chalk have all been traditionally attributed to Mary Beale, with the exception of two. There is, however, no discernible difference of style between many of these studies and those already described, which are signed by Charles Beale. It has been thought better, therefore, not to attribute them definitely to the mother, although the greater part of them are probably by her hand.

BEALE, Mary (b. 1632, d. 1697) was the daughter of the Rev. J. Cradock, and born in Suffolk; married Charles Beale, a manufacturer of colours; modelled herself on Lely, though it is doubtful whether she was actually his pupil; and painted a great number of portraits, four of which are in the National Portrait Gallery.

ATTRIBUTED TO CHARLES BEALE.

1. A BISHOP OF MECHLIN. Head only, turned l., three-quarter face.
Roy., $7\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{8}$ in.
After Vandyck (?).
2. A YOUNG GIRL'S HEAD. Head and neck; full face; eyes turned r.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.

ATTRIBUTED TO MARY BEALE.

3. MARY BEALE. H.L., three-quarter face, turned l.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{8} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.
Apparently the original of the engraving by T. Chalmers.
4. CHARLES BEALE, THE SON. H.L., with slight moustache and long curls; his left hand on his breast; the dress lightly sketched in.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{4} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$ in.
5. HEZEKIAH BURTON, CANON OF NORWICH. Head, nearly full face, with long curls.
Roy. upr., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$ in.
Hezekiah Burton (d. 1681) was a Fellow of Magdalene College, Cambridge, a friend of Tillotson, Stillingfleet and Pepys, and wrote two volumes of Discourses. The portrait by Mary Beale, of which this is the study, is now at Magdalene College, and was engraved by R. White.
6. ABRAHAM COWLEY. Head, not quite three-quarter face, turned l., with long curls falling over the shoulders.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 7$ in.
This must have been done about the same time as Mary Beale's portrait of Cowley in the National Portrait Gallery; but that picture shows the poet in a different attitude.
Abraham Cowley (b. 1618, d. 1667), noted for extraordinary precocity as a poet, had in his own day an immense reputation, since declined. His Essays have survived his Odes.
7. SIMON PATRICK, BISHOP OF ELY. Head, nearly full face, with full wig and bands.
Roy., $7\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$ in.
Simon Patrick (b. 1626, d. 1707) was made Dean of Peterborough, 1679; and Bishop of Chichester, 1689. Translated to Ely, 1691. A voluminous theological writer.
8. ANTHONY ASHLEY COOPER, 1ST EARL OF SHAFTESBURY. Head, nearly full face, with full wig.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.
Lord Shaftesbury (b. 1621, d. 1683) held posts under Charles I., went over to the Parliament, became a prominent under Charles II. as one of the famous Cabal, fell from power, and died a refugee at Amsterdam.

9. JOHN TILLOTSON, ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY. Head, three-quarter face, turned l.
Roy., $7\frac{3}{4} \times 6\frac{5}{8}$ in.
John Tillotson (b. 1630, d. 1694) famous for his eloquence as a preacher, was made Dean of St. Paul's 1689 and Archbishop of Canterbury 1691.
10. THE SAME. Three-quarter face, turned r.
Roy., $7\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{8}$ in.
One of these drawings must be a study by Mary Beale for her portrait of Tillotson at Lambeth. There exists also a miniature painted by Charles Beale after the same picture. The second of these drawings is in a more finished style, suggesting that it was drawn from a picture, rather than from life.
11. THOMAS SYDENHAM (?). Head and shoulders, nearly full face, with slight moustache, the dress lightly outlined.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{4} \times 6\frac{5}{8}$ in.
This drawing corresponds fairly closely with Mary Beale's portrait of Sydenham, who was a friend of the Beale family, and teacher of Bartholomew Beale in medicine.
12. PORTRAIT STUDY. A gentleman with full wig, three-quarter face, turned l.
Roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.
13. THE SAME. Nearly full face.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{4} \times 6\frac{3}{4}$ in.
14. PORTRAIT STUDY, PERHAPS THOMAS SHADWELL, POET LAUREATE. Bust, three-quarter face, turned r., the shirt open, showing the throat.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$ in.
15. THE SAME. Bust, full face.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{1}{8}$ in.
16. THE SAME, with eyes turned r., nearly full face.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{4}$ in.
17. THE SAME. Head only, three-quarter face, turned r.
Roy., $6\frac{3}{4} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
18. THE SAME. Bust in profile, turned l.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{4} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
19. THE SAME. Bust, full face, turned slightly l.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$ in.
20. THE SAME. Bust, three-quarter face, turned l., the head covered with a fur-trimmed cap.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{4} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$ in.
21. THE SAME. Bust, nearly in profile, turned r.
Roy., $8\frac{5}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.
22. THE SAME. Full-face, with fur-trimmed cap.
Roy., $8\frac{5}{8} \times 6\frac{5}{8}$ in.
The above studies, all apparently of one sitter, bear a noticeable, but not quite convincing, resemblance to the portrait of Shadwell by Mary Beale in the possession of the Duke of Wellington.
23. THE SAME (?). Nearly full face, turned slightly r., with eyes looking down, the head without a wig, and covered with a fur-trimmed cap.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{5}{8}$ in.
24. THE SAME (?). A head, having the same features and nearly the same attitude as the preceding, also with eyes looking down, but of older appearance.
Roy., $6\frac{1}{8} \times 5\frac{1}{4}$ in.
25. THOMAS OTWAY (?). Head, nearly full face, with long curls flowing over the shoulders.
Roy., $7\frac{5}{8} \times 7$ in.
This portrait has a great deal of resemblance to Mary Beale's portrait of Otway, the tragic poet (b. 1651, d. 1685), engraved by Houbraken.
26. PORTRAIT STUDY OF A DIVINE. Head, with large features and a wart under the l. cheek, three-quarter face, turned l.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.

27. THE SAME HEAD. The face turned more full, and the dress partly indicated.
Roy., $9\frac{5}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.
28. PORTRAIT STUDY. A gentleman in a long wig, head only, full face, turned slightly l.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{8}$ in.
29. A SERVANT GIRL. H.L., the head turned slightly l., and the eyes looking down.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{3}{4}$ in.
30. THE SAME. The bust of a girl, the head covered with a kerchief, and turned slightly r.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 7$ in.
31. THE SAME GIRL, ASLEEP. H.L., the arms folded, the head leaning l., and a kitten on the l. shoulder.
Roy., $9\frac{5}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Of much coarser execution than the preceding; perhaps by Charles Beale.
32. THE SAME GIRL, RECLINING. Head and shoulders, the head lying on a pillow r.
Roy., $6\frac{7}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$ in.
33. THE SAME. Bust, the head inclined r., and wearing a cap.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{4} \times 6\frac{1}{4}$ in.
34. THE SAME GIRL, AT A YOUNGER AGE. Bust, full face, a cap on the head.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{5}{8}$ in.
35. THE SAME. Bust, the face in three-quarters, a cap on the head.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$ in.
This drawing is of far superior execution to most of these studies.
36. THE SAME. Bust, full face, turned slightly r., with a cap over the head.
Roy., $7\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$ in.
37. THE SAME. Bust, with head and eyes turned slightly r.
Roy., $7\frac{7}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
38. THE SAME. Bust, with head inclined l., and eyes looking upward.
Roy., $8\frac{5}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$ in.
39. THE SAME. Head only, with eyes turned upwards.
Roy., $7\frac{3}{4} \times 6\frac{5}{8}$ in.
40. A YOUNG WOMAN. H.L., three-quarter-face, turned l., the hair enclosed in a cap.
Roy., $9\frac{5}{8} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.
41. AN OLD WOMAN. H.L., sitting in a chair with arms folded, the face enclosed in a close-fitting cap, with broad ends meeting in front over the breast.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{8} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.
42. A WOMAN. H.L., the face in three-quarters, turned l., the right arm leaning on a table.
Roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.
43. A YOUTH READING. A youth with long hair and a fur cap, seen in front, reading at a table, on which he leans his left elbow and right hand.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{4} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$ in.
44. THE SAME, PLAYING A PIPE. Head and shoulders, three-quarter face, turned r., wearing the same cap.
Roy., $8 \times 6\frac{1}{4}$ in.
45. SKETCH OF A LADY. Bust, nearly full face; very lightly sketched in outline, with a few details in the shadows.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.
46. A YOUNG MAN WITH LONG HAIR. H.L., the figure bent towards the l., and partly hidden by a large portfolio grasped by the left hand.
Roy., $7\frac{3}{4} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.
47. THE SAME. Head and shoulders, the face in three-quarters, turned l., and the right hand resting on the top of a chair.
48. THE SAME. Head and shoulders, the head inclined r., and the eyes looking upwards l.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.

49. THE SAME, WITH LARGE HAT. H.L., the head inclined a little l.
Roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$ in.
50. THE SAME, LAUGHING. H.L., the head bent l., and the left arm resting on the back of a chair.
51. STUDY OF AN OLD MAN, WITH LONG HAIR. Bust, full face, smiling.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$ in.
52. THE SAME, SMOKING A PIPE. H.L., the face in three-quarters, turned r.
Roy., $9\frac{5}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ in.
53. THE SAME. Also smoking, in a similar position to the preceding, but with eyes turned down, and left hand on the top of a chair.
Roy., $9\frac{5}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ in.
54. THE SAME. Bust, nearly in profile, turned r.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{4} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.
55. THE SAME, AN OUTLINE SKETCH. Bust turned r., with eyes looking up.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{4} \times 7$ in.
56. STUDY OF A MAN WITH BUSHY HAIR. H.L., with a cap having a hole in the peak, full face, smiling.
Roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.
57. THE SAME, IN PROFILE. Turned r., smiling.
Roy., $9\frac{5}{8} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$ in.
58. STUDY OF A LADY. Head, full face, the eyes turned r., the face surrounded by a lace cap.
Roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$ in.
59. A BOY'S HEAD. Full face, with flowing hair each side of it.
Roy., $7\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
60. HEAD OF A YOUNG MAN. Three-quarter face, turned l., with long curls to the shoulders.
Roy., $7\frac{7}{8} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.
61. A YOUNG MAN: HEAD AND SHOULDERS. Three-quarter face, turned r., with short curling hair.
Roy., $8\frac{5}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$ in.
62. THE SAME. Head only, three-quarter face, turned r., the head inclined l.
Roy., $6\frac{3}{4} \times 5\frac{1}{8}$ in.
63. STUDY OF A YOUNG BOY. Head and shoulders, nearly full face, smiling.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.
64. THE SAME. Bust, full face.
Roy., $7\frac{3}{4} \times 6\frac{5}{8}$ in.
65. STUDY OF A BOY. H.L., the face turned r., the mouth slightly open.
Roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.
66. THE SAME. H.L., full face, the eyes turned upwards l.
Roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 7$ in.
67. THE SAME. H.L., nearly full face, smiling.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$ in.
68. THE SAME. H.L., the face in three-quarters, turned l.
Roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$ in.
69. THE SAME, ASLEEP. Head only, lying on a pillow, r.
Roy., $6\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{8}$ in.
70. THE SAME. Three-quarter face, nearly in profile, turned r.
Roy., $7\frac{7}{8} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.
71. THE SAME. Head and shoulders, turned l., smiling with open mouth.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{4} \times 6\frac{3}{4}$ in.
72. SKETCH OF A CHILD. Head and shoulders of a boy, resembling the last, the head inclined l., the lips parted.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6$ in.

73. THE SAME. Head and shoulders, the eyes looking up, r.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
74. A BOY'S HEAD. Full face, with long curls round the face.
Roy., $7\frac{1}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$ in.
75. STUDY OF A BOY. Probably the same as the preceding, at an older age. H.L., the face turned r., the eyes full, with long curls.
Roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
76. STUDY OF A WOMAN. Head, with bust slightly sketched; full face, a cap on the head.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
77. STUDY OF A LADY. Bust, in low dress, the face in three-quarters, turned l., a long tress falling in front over the left shoulder.
Roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$ in.
78. STUDY OF A LADY. Bust, in low dress, face turned slightly l., the hair in curls.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.
79. STUDY OF A LADY. Bust, in low dress, the face turned slightly r., the hair in curls, and drapery coming from the back of the head, over the right shoulder.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$ in.
80. STUDY OF A YOUNG GIRL. Bust, in low dress, the head turned slightly r., the hair in curls.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 7$ in.
81. STUDY OF A YOUTH. Head only, nearly full face, surrounded by a thick mass of curls.
Roy., $7\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
82. STUDY OF A GIRL. Bust, in low dress, the eyes full, the head, with clustered curls, turned slightly r., and drapery falling behind the head on to the neck.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$ in.
83. STUDY OF A YOUNG MAN. Head and shoulders, three-quarter face, turned r., the chin somewhat raised.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{4}$ in.
84. STUDY OF A SERVANT GIRL. Head and shoulders, the face inclined r., the head turned slightly in the same direction, and wearing a cap.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{4} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$ in.
85. THE SAME GIRL, SMILING. Bust, nearly full face, the head with a cap, and inclined l.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
86. STUDY OF A GIRL, RESEMBLING A NEGRESS. A girl with thick lips, smiling. H.L., directed r., with the face turned round almost full; a cap on the head.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{4} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
87. A BOY HOLDING A SHELL IN HIS HAND. H.L., turned l., three-quarter face, with eyes full and long curls surrounding the face; the right hand extended and holding a shell.
Roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.
88. THE SAME BOY, ASLEEP. H.L., a reclining figure seen in front, foreshortened.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.
89. A GENTLEMAN IN A FUR-TRIMMED CAP READING AT A TABLE. He sits l., the figure turned l., the face nearly full.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ in.
90. HEAD OF A GIRL. Head only, with cap, three-quarter face, turned r.
Roy., $7\frac{3}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$ in.
91. STUDY OF A YOUNG LADY. Bust, nearly full face, the eyes looking down, the hair in curls.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$ in.
92. STUDY OF A YOUNG MAN, ASLEEP. Head of a youth asleep in bed, with a nightcap over long hair, his chin half covered by bed clothes.
Roy., $7\frac{1}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ in.

93. STUDY OF A YOUNG LADY. H.L., nearly in profile, turned r., in low dress, with hair plaited at the back.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 7$ in.
94. STUDY OF A YOUNG LADY. Bust, in low dress, full face, the eyes turned l., with flowing hair.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.
95. A YOUNG GIRL IN FUR-TRIMMED CAP. Bust, three-quarter face, turned r.
Roy., $7\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
96. HEAD OF A BOY. Head only, full face, the features in outline only.
Roy., $6\frac{3}{8} \times 5\frac{1}{4}$ in.
97. STUDY OF A LADY. Bust, in low dress, nearly profile, turned r.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$ in.
98. STUDY OF A LADY. Perhaps the same as the preceding. H.L., in low dress, the face turned slightly r., a long tress coming down over the left shoulder.
Roy. $9\frac{3}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$ in.
99. STUDY OF A GENTLEMAN. Head and shoulders, the face in three-quarters, with close curling full wig, turned l.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
100. STUDY OF A LADY. H.L., in low dress, the face turned slightly l., the hair flowing behind the shoulders.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{4} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$ in.
101. STUDY OF A LADY WITH A NECKLACE. Bust, in low dress, with masses of curls on each side of the head; nearly full face, the figure turned l.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.
102. THE SAME LADY. Bust, in low dress, with necklace, three-quarter face, turned l.
Roy. $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.
This drawing is of much greater finish than the preceding; perhaps done from a picture.
103. STUDY OF A LADY. Bust, in low dress, full face, the hair in curls.
Roy., $8\frac{5}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.
104. THE SAME LADY. H.L., nearly full face, in low dress looped up with jewels.
Roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$ in.
105. STUDY OF A YOUNG GIRL. Bust, in low dress, full face, flowing hair.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
106. STUDY OF A LADY. Bust, in low dress, three-quarter face, turned r.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{4}$ in.
107. THE SAME LADY. Bust, in low dress, the face and figure turned slightly r.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$ in.
108. STUDY OF A YOUNG WOMAN. Bust, turned l., the face nearly full, enclosed by a cap.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{4} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.
109. THE SAME PERSON. Bust, in low dress, the head in three-quarters, turned r., with cap over the hair.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 7$ in.
110. THE SAME. Bust, turned r., the face in three-quarters, with eyes full, the hair gathered in a short knot at the back, and with ringlets on the forehead.
Roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$ in.
111. STUDY OF A YOUNG WOMAN. H.L., turned r., the face nearly full, slightly smiling, and surrounded by a lace cap; the head of a cat, which is on her lap, appearing r.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ in.
112. THE SAME PERSON. H.L., nearly full face, turned a little l., the figure and dress only roughly outlined.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{8} \times 7$ in.
113. STUDY OF A BOY. H.L., turned r., the face in three-quarters, and eyes full, long hair falling over the shoulders.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{5}{8}$ in.

114. STUDY OF A LADY. Bust, three-quarter face, turned r., the head covered with a shawl.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ in.
115. STUDY OF A GENTLEMAN. Head and shoulders, full face, with jovial expression, hair falling on each side.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{4} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$ in.
116. STUDY OF A GIRL. Bust, three-quarter face, turned l., a cap on the head.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
117. THE SAME GIRL. Head, three-quarter face, turned l., felt hat on head, the bust slightly suggested.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 7$ in.
118. STUDY OF A YOUNG LADY. Bust, nearly full face, with hair in curls each side of the brow.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ in.
119. STUDY OF A YOUNG MAN, LOOKING OVER HIS SHOULDER. Bust, turned r., the face nearly full, and eyes looking over the r. shoulder, long curling hair.
Roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{5}{8}$ in.
120. THE SAME PERSON. Head only, turned slightly l., smiling.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
121. STUDY OF A LADY. Bust, in low dress, nearly full face, turned slightly r., with masses of curls each side of the forehead.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
122. HEAD OF A MAN. Three-quarter face, turned l., the eyes full, curling hair.
Roy., $7\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{5}{8}$ in.
123. STUDY OF A BOY. H.L., turned r., with eyes almost full, and flower in his raised right hand; the figure slightly outlined.
Roy., $8\frac{7}{8} \times 6\frac{5}{8}$ in.
124. PORTRAIT OF A LADY. H.L., in a loose flowing dress; the face in three-quarters, surrounded by ringlets, the arms crossed on the top.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$ in.
125. HEAD OF A MAN IN A SKULL CAP. Three-quarter face, turned r., with a small pointed beard, moustache, and collar of the fashion of Charles I.'s time.
Roy., $7\frac{1}{4} \times 6\frac{5}{8}$ in.
Probably after Vandyck.
126. STUDY FOR A PICTURE. A girl asleep l., while from behind a curtain l. a boy tries to wake her by tickling her nose with a straw.
Roy., $7\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
127. STUDY OF A HEAD. A young man with smooth hair coming over his forehead, and a slight moustache, looking down towards the r.
Roy., $8\frac{5}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{4}$ in.
128. HEAD OF A GIRL WEeping. Head only, turned r., with dishevelled hair.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{4}$ in.
Mary Beale painted, according to Walpole, a Magdalen 'from Moll Trioche, a young woman who died in 1672.' This may be a sketch for the picture.
129. STUDY OF A HEAD, APPARENTLY FOR OR FROM A PICTURE OF CHRIST. A bearded head, with long hair curling over the shoulders, which are clothed in loose drapery.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$ in.
130. STUDY OF A HEAD OF BACCHUS. The head, turned r., is only slightly outlined, the hair crowned with grapes and vine-leaves.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
131. ABRAHAM COWLEY; AFTER LELY. A youthful face, nearly in profile, with long curls, turned l.
Roy., $8\frac{5}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$ in.
132. SIR PETER LELY; AFTER A PORTRAIT BY HIMSELF. Three-quarter face, turned r., the face framed in a heavy wig, coming over the shoulders.
Roy., $8\frac{7}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.

133. HEAD; AFTER VANDYCK. The head and shoulders of the person who holds Charles I.'s helmet in Vandyck's equestrian portrait at Windsor, and who was first described as the Duc d'Epemon, in the print after the picture engraved by Baron, 1741. The face has a certain resemblance to that of Jean Louis de Valette de Nogaret, Duc d'Epemon (1554-1642), who had, however, no relations with England or Charles I. His son, Bernard de Nogaret and Duc d'Epemon, was in England, 1639-1643, and was given the Order of the Garter. Vandyck's picture was, however, painted before 1639, and the features of the younger Duke in no way resemble those of the personage in question, who is described as "Monsieur St. Antwaine" in the original MS. Catalogue of James II.'s pictures (W. B. Rye's 'England as seen by Foreigners,' p. 253). Saint Antoine was chief equerry to Prince Henry, and afterwards to Charles I., but could not have worn the Order of the Saint Esprit, which decorates the person in the picture.
Roy., $9\frac{1}{4} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$ in.
134. HEAD OF THE EARL OF STRAFFORD; AFTER VANDYCK.
Roy., $8\frac{1}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.
135. SIR PHILIP MAINWARING; AFTER VANDYCK.
Roy., $8\frac{5}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.
The last two drawings are from the celebrated picture of Strafford and his secretary at Wentworth House.
136. HEAD OF THE EARL OF STRAFFORD, apparently after the same picture.
Black and red chalk; roy., $4\frac{3}{8} \times 4$ in.
137. SIR ANTHONY VANDYCK; AFTER HIMSELF. Bust, turned r., in slashed doublet with broad collar, three-quarter face.
138. EDWARD STILLINGFLEET, BISHOP OF WORCESTER; AFTER LELY. H.L., full face.
Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 7$ in.
This portrait was engraved by Blooteling. Mary Beale also painted Stillingfleet, and her portrait of him was engraved by R. White.
139. HORTENSE MANGINI, DUCHESS OF MAZARIN, MISTRESS OF CHARLES II.; AFTER LELY. H.L., three-quarter face, eyes full.
Roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$ in.
140. BARBARA VILLIERS, DUCHESS OF CLEVELAND, MISTRESS OF CHARLES II.; AFTER LELY. H.L., face nearly full, l. hand holding up dress.
Roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$ in.

 Roy., $6\frac{1}{2} \times 9\frac{1}{4}$ in.
153. STUDY OF TWO HEADS; AFTER A PICTURE. The head of a bearded man resembling Rubens, looking down towards the l.; over his shoulder r., a face, clean shaven, looking in the same direction.
 Roy., $9\frac{1}{4} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$ in.
154. COPY OF A PORTRAIT OF THE VENETIAN SCHOOL. A man with short curling beard, in a large hat, seen in three-quarter face, looking over his left shoulder; a flute in his raised right hand.
 Roy., $9\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$ in.
 After a picture of the school of Giorgione, of which there is more than one example—one in England, another at Naples.
155. STUDIES OF A HAND. Two studies of a hand, with part of the forearm.
 Roy., $6\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$ in.
156. STUDY FROM A STATUE OF DIANA.
 Roy., $9\frac{5}{8} \times 6\frac{5}{8}$ in.
157. STUDY FROM THE CAST OF A HEAD. A cast of an old man's head, raised on a short pole and pedestal.
 Roy., $9\frac{1}{8} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.
158. STUDY FROM THE SAME CAST.
 Roy., $8\frac{5}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$ in.
159. FROM THE SAME CAST.
160. FROM THE SAME CAST.
 Roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{4}$ in.
161. STUDY FROM A CAST OF A CHILD'S HEAD.
 Roy., $7\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$ in.
162. FROM THE SAME CAST.
163. FROM THE SAME CAST.
 Roy., $7\frac{5}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.
164. FROM THE SAME CAST.
 Roy., $5\frac{3}{4} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.
165. STUDY FROM THE BUST OF A FEMALE.
 Roy., $9\frac{1}{8} \times 6\frac{7}{8}$ in.

All the above drawings by Mary and Charles Beale were, with one exception, bequeathed by the Rev. C. M. Cracherode, 1799.

BEAUCLERK, Lady Diana (b. 1734, d. 1808). Amateur painter and etcher; eldest daughter of Charles Spencer, second Duke of Marlborough; married in 1757 Lord Bolingbroke, and was divorced 1768; married in 1770 Topham Beauclerk, Dr. Johnson's friend, and survived him many years; made many designs of children, cupids, etc., engraved by Bartolozzi, who was also the engraver of her illustrations to Burger's 'Leonora' (1796) and to Dryden's 'Fables' (1797). The edition of 'Leonora' is in the department.

Jean Marie Delattre (b. 1745, d. 1840), a native of Abbeville, brought to England by Ryland; engraved in the stipple manner, and worked for Bartolozzi.

Inserted in the interleaved copy of Edwards' 'Anecdotes of Painting,' presented by J. H. Anderdon, Esq., in November, 1867.

BELL, John (b. 1811, d. 1895). Sculptor and etcher; born in Norfolk, worked at Kensington; exhibited at the Royal Academy and other galleries, 1832–1879; member of the Etching Club; published a series of outline designs in somewhat feeble and mannered imitation of Flaxman, called 'Compositions from Morning and Evening Prayer' (this series is in the department), 1844; best known by his 'Eagle Slayer,' Guards' Memorial in Waterloo Place, and Wellington Monument at the Guildhall.

[1–6] Six designs for the Lord's Prayer. Three of the published designs in the 'Compositions' resemble, but with some variations, Nos. 4, 5 and 6 of the above.

1. OUR FATHER. A young man, naked, kneeling before an open book, and surrounded by clouds.
Pen and ink; roy., $9\frac{1}{2} \times 12\frac{3}{8}$ in.
2. THY KINGDOM COME. An angel lifting an old man by the shoulders and looking upwards to a cloud, from behind which two hands are outstretched.
Pen and ink; roy., $15\frac{1}{2} \times 10\frac{5}{8}$ in.
3. THY WILL BE DONE. A nude figure, with rudimentary wings, seated l. among clouds by an open book, and looking up in awe to an angel who conducts a shrouded form, with wings full grown, to heaven.
Pen and ink; roy., $15\frac{1}{2} \times 11\frac{1}{8}$ in.
4. GIVE US THIS DAY OUR DAILY BREAD. A man and a woman kneeling by a stream and receiving each a loaf from an angel suspended in the air, while two children play about their knees; a vase stands beside them.
Pen and ink; roy., $13\frac{1}{2} \times 11$ in.
5. FORGIVE US OUR TRESPASSES. Two men kneeling and embracing l., while an angel floating near records their reconciliation in a book.
Pen and ink; roy., $13\frac{1}{2} \times 10\frac{1}{2}$ in.
6. DELIVER US FROM EVIL. A man, to whom his wife is clinging, uplifted by an angel from the grasp of a demon, whom another angel is about to pierce with a spear.

All the above were purchased October, 1877.

BENAZECH, Charles (b. about 1767, d. 1794). Painter; son of P. P. Benazech, the engraver; born in London, went to Rome 1782, and returning, worked in Paris under Greuze, and witnessed the Revolution; exhibited at the Royal Academy 1790 and 1791, and died in London.

1. (Ob.) THE SEPARATION OF LOUIS XVI. FROM HIS FAMILY, 29TH SEPTEMBER, 1792. The king stands towards the r., between his sisters and the queen, holding their hands, while his two children, r., cling to their mother; at a door, l., the Commissioners of the Commune of Paris enter with a warrant.
Indian ink wash and pen; imp., $12\frac{3}{4} \times 18\frac{1}{4}$ in.
- (Rev.) ANOTHER DRAWING OF THE SAME SUBJECT. The queen and children are at the l., not the r., of the king; and a chandelier is above the group; l. is a staircase and many figures with torches. This arrangement is that of the finished design, as seen in the engraving.
Indian ink wash and pen.
Engraved by L. Schiavonetti, 1793.
2. LAST INTERVIEW OF LOUIS XVI. WITH HIS FAMILY. The king is in a chair and surrounded by his family. The queen stands over him with arms outstretched. The Princess Royal weeps upon his breast, and the Dauphin kneels and kisses his hand. Madame Elisabeth, his sister, kneels by a chair l., and Cléry his valet stands behind, r.; the Abbé Edgeworth implores him to have courage; by a door at the extreme r., a man enters behind a screen and prie-dieu.
Indian ink wash and pen; imp., $14\frac{1}{2} \times 20\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Engraved by Schiavonetti and by C. Silanio.
In the finished design, as seen in the engravings, the central group is the same, but Edgeworth stands l., and Madame Elisabeth and Cléry are at the r.

3. LOUIS XVI. AT THE FOOT OF THE SCAFFOLD. The scaffold, on which two executioners are busy with the guillotine, occupies the centre, and at the foot of it, in the foreground, Louis takes farewell of Edgeworth as he prepares to mount the steps; Santerre on horseback, l., raises his sword; an attendant takes the king's coat; and the Commissioners stand r. All round the scaffold are troops of horse and foot.

Indian ink wash and pen, tinted in parts with water colours; imp., $13\frac{3}{4} \times 20\frac{1}{2}$ in.

Engraved by Schiavonetti and by C. Silanio.

The engravings show the same composition, reversed.

A fourth design of the same set, not in the collection, representing the trial of Louis XVI., was also engraved by Schiavonetti.

All the above were purchased May, 1896.

BENTLEY, Charles (b. 1805 or 1806, d. 1854). Landscape painter; born in London; apprenticed to an engraver, but did little in this line; painted chiefly sea and shore subjects from the British Isles; exhibited over two hundred drawings at the old Water Colour Society, 1834-1854, and others elsewhere.

1. MOORLAND SCENE. A rough slope r., covered with furze, on which a woman lays out her washing; beneath, a road leading into a valley with bare hills, rising to a gloomy sky.

Purchased in July, 1876.

2. LANDSCAPE WITH ELM TREES. View down a narrow field with gate and stile at the end of it; great elms l. and beside the palings r., over which is seen a piece of enclosed ground, and cottages beyond. Signed and dated, C. Bentley, 1839.

Water colours; roy., $16\frac{3}{8} \times 13\frac{1}{2}$ in.

3. A SEAPORT FROM THE SEA. A town with massive quays, and high, many-storied buildings, dominated by a cupola, seen from the sea, a little distance off shore; in the foreground are two boats filled with country people, from one of which a man hails a sailing boat at the l. Other shipping is seen r., and within the harbour above the roofs; hills crowned with buildings beyond, bathed in the rising sun. Signed and dated, C. Bentley, 1847.

Water colours; atlas, $17\frac{3}{8} \times 28$ in.

Bentley was probably never abroad, and the 'Coast Town of the Levant,' by which name this drawing has been christened, has probably no existence. Many incongruities in the architecture, shipping, &c., would by themselves suggest that this was a fancy composition.

Nos. 2 and 3 were purchased at the White sale, February, 1880.

BEVERLY, William Roxby (b. 1824, d. 1889). Scene painter; born of a North Country family of actors; first acquired fame by his scenery for the Vestris management of the Lyceum, 1847-1855, and became the most celebrated scene-painter of his day; exhibited also a number of sea-pieces between 1865-1880 at the Royal Academy and other galleries.

1. STREET IN SCARBOROUGH. A boat-builder's shed and yard, with a boat's gear lying about it, under a cliff r.; l. a lane of low houses leading to a church with a square tower.

Water colours and body colour; roy., 10×14 in.

Purchased June, 1889.

2. REDHILL COMMON. Rough open ground, on which are a flock of geese, rising beyond a hollow into a broad rolling slope with sandy paths climbing it, among gorse and heather; behind that a higher hill towards the r., dark against a clouded sky.

Water colours and body colour; imp., $12\frac{1}{8} \times 20\frac{3}{8}$ in.

3. ON THE THAMES. A wide stretch of river, with reedy banks and wooded hills sloping to the water l.
Pencil; imp., $9 \times 19\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Nos. 2 and 3 were purchased May, 1894.

BEWICK, John (b. 1760, d. 1795). Wood-engraver; younger brother of Thomas Bewick; apprenticed 1777 to Bewick and Beilby, with whom he remained five years, and then went to London, where he was actively employed on children's books; published 1788 an edition of Gay's 'Fables,' following the designs of his brother; 'Emblems of Mortality,' copies of Holbein's 'Imagines Mortis,' 1789; 'Looking-Glass for the Mind,' 1792; 'Tales of Youth,' 1794; and 'Blossoms of Mortality,' 1796.

1. VIEW OF HORNSEY, WITH JOHN BEWICK'S LODGINGS. A meadow with a horse, pony, and cow, beside the New River, beyond which is a house, drawn in two views (that to the l. unfinished), and a large space left blank, on which are traces of two figures in outline. The drawing is in an oval, under which is written in Miss Isabella Bewick's handwriting, Hornsey—Duplicate view of John Bewick's lodgings—His pony.
Water colours; oval, roy., $7\frac{1}{2} \times 9\frac{3}{8}$ in.

BEWICK, Thomas (b. 1753, d. 1828). Wood-engraver and draughtsman; born at a farm on the Tyne; apprenticed 1767 to a Newcastle engraver, Beilby, for whom he did much work, including some cuts for Gay's 'Fables,' which received a premium from the Society of Arts; went to London 1776, but returned shortly and became Beilby's partner; published 'Select Fables' 1784, the 'Quadrupeds' 1790, and the 'Birds' 1797–1804, the books which contain the finest of his designs, though he published a great deal of illustration subsequently. Bewick revived wood-engraving in England, making many technical improvements in the method of work, and has had an enormous influence on the book illustration of this century.

BEWICK, William (b. 1795, d. 1866). Painter; born at Darlington, and practically self-taught; started at twenty for London; was received as pupil by Haydon, and from 1820 began to exhibit pictures in his master's grandiose manner; painted portraits at Darlington 1824–5; sent to Rome to copy Michel Angelo's frescoes for Sir T. Lawrence; returned to London 1829, and retired after 1840 in failing health to his native county.

1. PORTRAIT OF WALTER SAVAGE LANDOR. Head and shoulders, the face nearly full, turned slightly l. Inscribed in pencil Walter Savage Landor, and in ink Done at Florence, Sept. 12th, 1826.
 Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white: imp., $22\frac{1}{2} \times 16\frac{5}{8}$ in.
 This portrait shows Landor at the age of 51, during the most active period of his life, when he was living at Florence, engaged on the Imaginary Conversations.
2. PORTRAIT OF SIR JAMES MONCRIEFF. Head and shoulders, full face, the eyes turned rather to the r. Dated Dec. 30, 1824, and inscribed James Moncrieff.
 Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white: imp., $20\frac{1}{2} \times 14\frac{3}{8}$ in.
 Sir James Wellwood Moncrieff, afterwards Lord Moncrieff (b. 1776, d. 1851), was called to the Scottish Bar 1799, and made a judge 1829; a celebrated advocate, and one of the best judges of his time.
3. PORTRAIT OF JOHN COMERFORD. Head and shoulders, three-quarter face turned r. Signed Bewick, fecit. J. Comerford.
 Black and red chalk on drab paper, heightened with white: imp., $21 \times 16\frac{3}{8}$ in.
 John Comerford (b. 1762, d. 1832), was a miniature painter at Dublin, much esteemed in the early years of this century.
 All the above were purchased May, 1887.

BIGG, William Redmore (b. 1755, d. 1828). Painter; pupil of Penny; studied at the Royal Academy, and elected A.R.A. 1787, R.A., 1814; popular in his day for his pictures of domestic subjects.

BIRD, Edward (b. 1772, d. 1819). Painter; born at Wolverhampton, and self-educated; painted and taught drawing at Bristol; exhibited from 1809 at the Royal Academy; elected A.R.A. 1812, and R.A. 1815; painted genre subjects, and, later, historical pictures.

1. PORTRAIT OF J. M. W. TURNER, R.A. Profile of head and shoulders, looking r.; apparently drawn when Turner was in middle life.
Pencil; roy. upr., $4\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{1}{4}$ in.
Purchased May, 1894.

BLACKLOCK, William James (b. 1815 [?], d. 1858). Painter; chiefly of north country landscapes; born near Carlisle; worked in London, exhibiting at the Royal Academy and elsewhere from 1836 till 1855, when ill-health obliged him to give up painting and return to Cumberland. He died at Dumfries.

1. WEIR AT HENLEY. A dark tree in the centre grows above the weir, down which the water pours from the r.; on the near bank a boy and girl, the boy with a fishing rod. Signed and dated W. J. Blacklock, 1842 (?)
Water colours; roy. upr., $8\frac{3}{4} \times 12\frac{3}{8}$ in.
Purchased at the Percy sale, May, 1890.

BLAKE, Robert (b. 1762, d. 1787). Engraver and designer; youngest and favourite brother of William Blake, by whom he was taught, and with whom he lived at 27 Broad Street till his early death.

1. IMAGINATIVE COMPOSITION. A group of aged men and a mother with her baby in her arms, gazing in terror from the edge of a cliff towards a storm, the fringe of which with inky cloud and ragged lightning advances r.

Indian ink wash and pen outlines; imp., $13\frac{1}{4} \times 18\frac{1}{4}$ in.

Purchased from H. H. Gilchrist, Esq., June, 1894.

This composition was used by William Blake in one of his earliest attempts at etching in relief. A unique impression of this etching, in which the figures are fewer and the whole design improved, is in the department. See Gilchrist's 'Life of William Blake,' Vol. I., p. 58.

BLAKE, William (b. 1757, d. 1827). Painter, engraver, and poet; born in London, and learnt drawing at Pars' drawing school; apprenticed 1771-78 with James Basire, the engraver; engraved throughout his life for booksellers, but his chief work was done from his own designs, illustrating his own text, and sold by himself; produced also a great quantity of designs which were not engraved, and a certain number of pictures, the best known of which was the Canterbury Pilgrims, exhibited by itself 1809; lived 1800-4 at Felpham on the Sussex coast, but except for this resided continually in London; had a great influence on Linnell, Samuel Palmer and Calvert, and later, on men like Rossetti. A large, though not complete, collection of Blake's illustrated books is in the department.

1. THE WHORE OF BABYLON. The Woman, wearing a mural crown, sits on the seven-headed Beast, a monster of dull crimson flesh and almost human form, half of whose horned faces look down gloating upon a battle of armed men, while half are turned back in question to the Woman. She with her left hand points to the flight of figures issuing in circling smoke from the cup in her right, and with cup and trumpet rushing down to mingle in the battle. Signed and dated W. Blake, inv. and del., 1809.

Water colours over Indian ink, with pen outlines; roy., $10\frac{3}{4} \times 8\frac{1}{2}$ in.

Purchased in March, 1847.

2. LETHO SIMILIS. A female figure reclining asleep with an expression of ecstasy on her face upon a tomb, inscribed Letho Similis; l., two shadowing trees spring among the flowers of the foreground.

Water colours; roy., $8\frac{3}{4} \times 1\frac{1}{4}$ in.

Purchased December, 1853.

Mr. W. M. Rossetti (Gilchrist's 'Blake,' 1863, Vol. II., p. 237) says that the design, apart from the tomb, "seems certainly not to be the handiwork of Blake; indeed, the authorship of the entire work may be questioned." The doubt appears justified.

3. THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD. Design for titlepage. Above, on each side of a space left blank for a title, are two angels, one holding the scales, the other sheathing the sword; a third rushes downward with a key to unlock the grave, from which l., a mother with her sons and daughters rises in the air wondering; and r., a father and young children raise their hands in joy at their deliverance from the burst fetters. Signed and dated 1806, W. Blake, inv.

Indian ink wash, slightly tinted, with pen outlines; roy., $17\frac{1}{2} \times 13\frac{3}{4}$ in.

Purchased July, 1856.

Mr. W. M. Rossetti, who describes this drawing in his Catalogue (List I., No. 70), wrongly identifies it with the design made for the Dedication to Blair's 'Grave,' and rejected by the publisher Cromek (see Gilchrist, Vol. I., p. 205). That design is called by Cromek in his letter of May, 1807, "the sketched vignette dedn."; it is now in the department, and described infra. No. 38. The present drawing was, however, made at the time when Blake was busy over the 'Grave,' and was probably at one time intended for the book.

4. THE FERTILIZATION OF EGYPT, AFTER FUSELI. The dog-headed Anubis standing astride the stream of Nile with hands uplifted to the Dog-star, at whose rising the river, represented by a winged figure with outspread arms in the distance, begins also to rise.
Indian ink wash; roy., $7\frac{3}{4} \times 5\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Purchased May, 1863, at the Bicknell Sale.
Engraved by Blake in 1791, as an illustration to Darwin's 'Botanic Garden,' after a sketch by Fuseli, which is also in the department. Blake's engraving is mounted opposite this drawing.
5. DANIEL: after a print from Michelangelo's fresco in the Sistine Chapel.
Indian ink, with pen outlines; roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
- [6-8.] Copies from Prints after Michelangelo's Frescoes over the Windows of the Sistine Chapel, illustrating the Genealogy of Christ.
6. Ob. GROUP FROM THE CEILING OF THE SISTINE CHAPEL: AFTER A PRINT FROM MICHELANGELO. A mother with child standing on her knee; the father behind. In the original fresco it is a man who holds the child.
Indian ink, with pen outlines; roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.

Rev. ANOTHER GROUP FROM THE SAME CEILING. A woman asleep with her head fallen on her knee, a child behind.
Indian ink, with pen outlines.
7. Ob. FIGURE FROM THE SAME CEILING. An old man meditating.

Rev. ANOTHER FIGURE FROM THE SAME CEILING. A seated man seen in full face. Inscribed in Blake's handwriting The Reposing Traveller.
Indian ink, with pen outlines.
8. Ob. FIGURE FROM THE SAME CEILING. A woman spinning.

Rev. MOTHER AND CHILD FROM THE SAME CEILING.
Indian ink, with pen outlines.
On each of these copies from prints after Michelangelo is a note, stating them to be Blake's work, vouched by Frederick Tatham, one of the friends of Blake's later years.
9. PAN TEACHING A BOY TO PLAY ON THE PIPE; FROM AN ANTIQUE. Inscribed Drawn by William Blake, after the antique. Supposed for some work. Frederick Tatham.
Indian ink, with pen outlines; roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{5}{8}$ in.
10. ILLUSTRATION TO HAYLEY'S BALLADS: THE CHILD IN THE EAGLE'S NEST. A mother stretching out her hands to rescue her baby from an eagle which has carried it to his nest on the high rocks.
Pencil sketch; roy., $7 \times 5\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Engraved by Blake in 'Hayley's Ballads,' 1805, p. 22.
11. A SHEET OF FIGURES, AFTER GEORGE CUMBERLAND, IMITATED FROM GREEK VASES.
Pen and ink; roy., $\times 16\frac{1}{2}$ in.
12. ANOTHER SHEET OF SIMILAR FIGURES.
Pen and ink; roy., $10\frac{1}{2} \times 16\frac{3}{8}$ in.
On each of these two drawings is a note by Mr. Tatham, stating them to be by Blake, "I suppose from Mr. Cumberland's designs for engraving." George Cumberland's 'Thoughts on Outline Sculpture,' &c., London, 1796, contains engravings by Blake after Cumberland's designs, but these are not engraved. See infra under Cumberland. Nos. 5-12 were purchased from Mr. Frederick Tatham, October, 1867.

13. SKETCH FOR 'NELSON GUIDING LEVIATHAN.' A naked man standing on a serpent, whose twisting coils completely frame his figure; the serpent is devouring a man, half-swallowed between its jaws.
Pencil sketch; roy., $11\frac{1}{2} \times 10\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Blake painted a tempera picture of this subject, called by himself 'The Spiritual Form of Nelson guiding Leviathan, in whose wreathings are enfolded the Nations of the Earth.' It is now in the possession of T. W. Jackson, Esq., of Worcester College, Oxford, and is described in Blake's own descriptive catalogue (Gilchrist, Vol. II., p. 120), with its companion picture of 'Pitt guiding Behemoth,' now in the National Gallery.
14. ALLEGORICAL DESIGN. The released soul of a man embracing his wife and children; two angels with keys standing by l.
Rough pencil sketch; roy., $8\frac{7}{8} \times 11\frac{5}{8}$ in.
Nos. 13 and 14 were presented by John Deffett Francis, Esq., November, 1873.
15. A MAN AND WOMAN WARMING THEMSELVES AT A FIRE. The nearly naked figures kneel l.; behind them, through tree trunks, open country.
Indian ink wash, slightly tinted; roy., $7\frac{1}{2} \times 5\frac{7}{8}$ in.
16. DESIGN FOR 'AHANIA.' A female figure (Ahania), with hands clasped in grief, sitting between the knees of a colossal bowed figure (Urizen), whose hands rest on her head.
Pencil sketch; roy., $6\frac{1}{4} \times 5\frac{1}{8}$ in.
Etched as frontispiece to 'Ahania' (1795). Reproduced in Ellis and Yeats' 'Works of William Blake,' 1893, Vol. III.
17. SPIRITS OF FIRE. Ecstatic forms floating with uplifted arms in great tongues of flame.
Pencil sketch; roy., $11\frac{3}{4} \times 9\frac{3}{4}$ in.
18. ACADEMICAL STUDY. A man standing nude, with arms raised, seen from behind.
Pencil; roy., $13\frac{3}{4} \times 8\frac{5}{8}$ in.
19. SKETCH FOR 'THE SOUL EXPLORING THE RECESSES OF THE GRAVE.' The Soul, a figure with a taper, exploring the arched hollow of the grave, in which a corpse lies among flames, while the Body stands above on earth.
Rough pencil sketch; roy., $10 \times 5\frac{1}{2}$ in.
The completed design was engraved by Schiavonetti as the seventh plate to Blair's 'Grave,' 1808.
20. DESIGN FOR A BOOK ILLUSTRATION. A bearded man embracing a woman; both kneeling on a rich carpet with a flowered curtain behind them.
Indian ink; roy., $7\frac{5}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{8}$ in.
21. ALLEGORICAL DESIGN. A naked figure reclining on a couch and raising his head to receive the message of a winged form (Mercury?) descending swiftly with a wand out of a cloud.
Red chalk over pencil; roy., $14\frac{3}{8} \times 10\frac{1}{2}$ in.
22. ILLUSTRATION TO MILTON: "AS DAPHNE WAS ROOT-BOUND." Daphne transformed into a tree.
Pencil sketch; roy., $7\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{1}{4}$ in.
23. AN ANGEL AWAKING THE DEAD WITH A TRUMPET. The angel rushes down and the dead rise amid bursting flames at the sound of his trumpet.
Pen and sepia wash; roy., $4\frac{5}{8} \times 3\frac{5}{8}$ in.
24. GOD SPEAKING TO ADAM AND EVE. They sit side by side looking up l.
Indian ink; roy., $7\frac{3}{8} \times 6$ in.
25. A SKETCH. A naked figure rushing headlong with arms outstretched.
Pencil sketch; roy., $6\frac{3}{4} \times 4\frac{1}{2}$ in.
26. ILLUSTRATION TO 'PARADISE LOST,' BOOK VI.: THE WARRING ANGELS. Satan falling backward l.; Michael r., sheathing his sword. Battling angels, with shields and spears, behind.
Pencil sketch; roy., $9\frac{7}{8} \times 11\frac{7}{8}$ in.
Damaged and once torn in two.
27. ALLEGORICAL DESIGN. An aged man walking with arms supported on the shoulders of a young man and young woman, each accompanied by a child.
Indian ink with pen outlines; roy., $6\frac{1}{4} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$ in.

28. SKETCH FOR ONE OF THE DESIGNS IN 'JERUSALEM.' A naked figure, "Hand" or "Reason," walking wrapped in flames with head turned back towards a woman, "Jerusalem," or "Imagination," r., who looks on him in horror.
Pencil; roy., $6\frac{3}{4} \times 9\frac{1}{4}$ in.
Etched in 'Jerusalem' (1804), p. 26.
29. IS ALL JOY FORBIDDEN? An old man with head bowed over a book on his lap, seated, with children mourning round him (Urizen and his daughters?). Above: Is all Joy Forbidden.
Pencil sketch; roy., $9\frac{1}{2} \times 10\frac{3}{4}$ in.
30. RUTH IN THE CORNFIELD (?). A field with standing corn beside which is a woman stooping to glean, and a man whom three kneeling figures address in supplication: some buildings l., and other figures in the distance r.
Pen sketch and Indian ink wash; roy., $5\frac{1}{2} \times 8\frac{1}{2}$ in.
31. ILLUSTRATION TO THE APOCALYPSE. St. John kneeling in awe before a vision of God, from whose mouth issues a sword.
Indian ink; roy., $12\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$ in.
32. Ob. SKETCH FOR A TITLEPAGE. At each side of a space left for the title are angels blowing trumpets, and, beneath, a rough indication of clouds and rain. Inscribed Angels to be very small, as small as the letters, that they may not interfere with the subject at bottom, which is to be a stormy sky and rain, separated from the angels by clouds.
Rough pencil sketch; roy., $15 \times 10\frac{3}{8}$ in.
Rev. Design for a fan. An oval with Cupid and Psyche. Not by Blake.
Water colours.
33. PITY. A figure, riding on a horse which rushes across the sky, receiving in its arms a naked child; beneath, the newly-delivered mother lies supine among bulrushes. Suggested by the lines in Macbeth:
"Pity, like a naked, new-born babe
Striding the blast, or Heaven's Cherubim horsed
Upon the sightless couriers of the air:"
lines written by Mr. Tatham on the drawing.
Rough pencil sketch; roy., $16\frac{1}{2} \times 11\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Nos. 13-33 were presented by John Deffett Francis, Esq., December, 1874.
34. PITY. Another study of the same subject differing somewhat from the last, and more resembling the colour-print described in Rossetti's Catalogue (Gilchrist, Vol. II., List I., No. 218), which has been mounted with it.
Purchased from H. H. Gilchrist, Esq., June, 1894.
35. 'THE ANCIENT OF DAYS PUTTING A COMPASS TO THE EARTH.' A white-haired figure stooping within a crimson orb of light to define, with a pair of immense compasses, the circumference of the world.
Water colour with pen outlines; roy., $11\frac{3}{4} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$ in.
A favourite subject with Blake. The same design, somewhat modified, forms the frontispiece to 'Europe,' 1794.
36. A SHEET OF STUDIES. Various nude figures, the principal one, in the centre, being that of a youth standing on clouds, with head turned back and upward to the sun.
Red chalk; roy., $7\frac{7}{8} \times 5\frac{1}{4}$ in.
These are studies for the titlepage of the 'Visions of the Daughters of Albion,' 1793.
37. A SHEET OF STUDIES FOR 'AMERICA.' Five floating figures; a female figure seen from behind, holding a wand; a man with a wand; two figures falling, with hands clasped behind their heads, and a winged form shooting an arrow downward. Inscribed, in nearly obliterated writing, for America.
Pen and ink; roy., $11\frac{5}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{4}$ in.
The first of these studies appears on the titlepage of 'America' (1793); the second on the 1st page of the prophecy after the Preludium; the third and fourth on the 3rd; and the last on the 2nd page.
Nos. 35-37 were purchased at the W. B. Scott sale, May, 1885.

38. DESIGN FOR THE DEDICATION TO BLAIR'S 'GRAVE.' A gate of gold, with green branches drooping over it, toward which the Soul floats wondering, with a key in either hand, while on the earth the Body is stretched asleep. Inscribed above in Blake's handwriting To the Queen; and, beneath that, the first words are just decipherable of the dedicatory verses by Blake, prefixed to the book:—

*"The Door of Death is made of gold,
That Mortal Eyes cannot behold;
But, when the Mortal Eyes are clos'd,
And cold and pale the limbs repos'd,
The Soul awakes; and wond'ring, sees
In her mild Hand the golden Keys," &c.*

Pen and ink, lightly washed with colour; roy., $11\frac{1}{2} \times 9\frac{3}{8}$ in.

This design was not engraved, having been rejected by the publisher Cromeck. See No. 3.

39. THE VALLEY OF DEATH: AN ILLUSTRATION TO BLAIR'S 'GRAVE.' A cave with many recesses in which the dead repose; from the mouth of it descends a rocky winding stair, down which come various figures, old and young; on the topmost stair stands an angel with ruddy wings and garments, holding a lamp. At the mouth of the cave is a building, where a wife laments over her husband, from whose body the soul ascends, and beyond are numerous figures on the rocky and steep paths of life. Signed inv. W. B.

Water colours, tinted over Indian ink, with pen outlines; roy., $9\frac{1}{2} \times 10\frac{1}{2}$ in.

This design was not engraved. Plate II. of the 'Grave' is called 'The Descent of Man into the Vale of Death,' and contains some of the same groups and single figures, moving down a similar rocky stair, but there are no recesses with the dead, nor any angel; and the whole composition is much simpler.

40. ILLUSTRATION TO JOB. Job and his wife seated side by side, with their children on either side of them; above, a vision of God in the whirlwind.

Pencil and Indian ink wash; roy., $11 \times 8\frac{1}{2}$ in.

This seems to be a first thought for the last design but one of the Job (1825), entitled 'There were not found Women fair as the Daughters of Job;' but it differs very much from the engraving.

Nos. 38-40 were purchased from H. H. Gilchrist, Esq., June, 1894.

41. ACADEMICAL STUDY. The nude figure of a youth standing, directed l., the right arm extended and the face turned full, with a pensive expression.

Black chalk; imp., $18\frac{5}{8} \times 14\frac{3}{8}$ in.

Presented by John Deffett Francis, Esq., April, 1878.

42. THE LAZAR-HOUSE OF MILTON: CALLED BY BLAKE "THE HOUSE OF DEATH." On a mat lie three victims of disease, two of them staring in rigid misery, the third writhing in torment; a fourth raises himself on his elbows to gaze fearfully at the form of Death, who, with eyes closed and beard streaming into tongues of flame, broods on a cloud from which arrows dart; a scroll hangs between his outspread arms. Beneath the cloud r., a fifth victim lies prone, his head bowed to the ground; and in front, Despair, a massive hairless form of dull green flesh with an iron barb in his hand, gazes down on the tortured figures with cruel lips and impassive eyes. Signed and dated W. Blake, 1795.

Water colours over oil colours; * atl., $18\frac{5}{8} \times 23\frac{1}{4}$.

Described in W. M. Rossetti's Catalogue, No. 17, List I. The design was suggested by the passage in 'Paradise Lost,' Book x., ending,

*"Dire was the tossing, deep the groans, Despair
Tended the sick, busiest from couch to couch;
And over them triumphant Death his dart
Shook, but forbore to strike."*

Purchased at the W. B. Scott sale, May, 1885.

* The blotted groundwork of this design was produced by pressing oil colours between two sheets of millboard: when this was dry, it was coloured up and completed in water colours. This is in fact a 'Monotype.' See Gilchrist, Vol. I., p. 420.

43. AN ALBUM OF SKETCHES: All in pencil except a few specified in their place.
- (1) (a) ROUGH FIGURE SKETCHES; one, a female figure playing a lyre on clouds; another, a male figure playing a pipe.
 - (b) A MOTHER SEATED CLASPING HER CHILD ON HER KNEES.
 - (2) (a) JEHOVAH AMONG CLOUDS.
 - (b) A RECUMBENT FIGURE OVER WHICH A WOMAN STANDS: beside her, a figure with outstretched arm; above, a crescent moon.
 - (3) (a) Very slight and indistinct: a figure seated under a tree, &c.
 - (b) Very slight: a woman lying on a recumbent body near a gate; two figures looking on: perhaps Britannia fainting on Albion's body. ('Jerusalem,' 94.)
 - (4) Rough and shadowy; a figure with r. arm outstretched, walking beside a car under a crescent moon.
 - (5) A WOMAN LEANING FROM CLOUDS TO RECEIVE A CHILD FROM THE ARMS OF ITS MOTHER.
 - (6) A FIGURE SUSPENDED BY THE ARMS TO A ROCK; l., a standing figure weeping; r., a crouching female figure.
 - (7) (a) A FIGURE IN FLIGHT WITH HANDS CLASPED IN FRONT.
 - (b) ANOTHER FIGURE IN FLIGHT. Inscribed by William Blake, vouched by Frederick Tatham.
Nos. (1)-(7) were purchased from Mr. Frederick Tatham, October, 1867.
 - (8) (a) HAMLET ADMINISTERING THE OATH TO HIS FRIENDS. A figure standing with drawn sword, beside two kneeling figures also with drawn swords raised.
 - (b) Rough sketch: A figure standing with arms uplifted.
 - (9) Ob. Sketch for design on the titlepage of 'America' (1793). A woman bending over a dead body in a storm of rain.
Rev. TWO DESIGNS: A mother with a distaff at a table with her husband and two sons; and, An old man in long robes seated in meditation.
 - (10) (a) A WOOD, in which a woman lies supine on the ground, l., two genii whispering at her ears, while a figure standing before her, r., sends two more genii towards her.
 - (b) TWO MASSIVE SEATED FORMS WITH BOWED HEADS; before them, r., a frailer standing figure.
Up., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 11$ in.
Perhaps the same design as that described in Rossetti's Catalogue, List II., 144.
 - (11) (a) A MAN MOVING AWAY, WITH CLOAK THROWN OVER HIS SHOULDER.
 - (b) Ob. ILLUSTRATION TO DANTE'S 'INFERNO,' Canto III., 52-69. The 'cattivi' following the whirling flag, and harried by wasps and hornets; Acheron beyond. (Very rough sketch.)
Rev. ILLUSTRATION TO THE 'INFERNO,' Canto IV., 7. Dante and Virgil on the brink of Limbo, 'della valle d'abisso dolorosa.'
 - (12) (a) A SEATED FIGURE REJECTING THE COMFORT OF A WOMAN WHO COMES TOWARDS HIM.
Signed W. B.
 - (b) IRIS: A FIGURE WITH WIDE PEACOCK WINGS.
The figure occurs in 'Jerusalem,' p. 14.
 - (c) A MALE FIGURE GRAPPLING WITH GREAT CLOUDS.
 - (13) Ob. AN OLD MAN KNEELING AT THE BEDSIDE OF A WOMAN; four figures standing l.
Rev. VARIOUS ROUGH PENCIL SKETCHES OF FACES, &c.
The sketches on both sides of this sheet seem to be by Robert rather than by William Blake.
 - (14) (a) Ob. LADY MACBETH, WITH CANDLE AND DAGGER; the sleeping form of Duncan r. Inscribed Had he not resembled my Father, I had done it.

- Rev.* ANOTHER STUDY FOR LADY MACBETH'S FIGURE; and another figure, apparently an angel.
- (b) CAIN FLEEING FROM ABEL'S DEAD BODY, HIS HANDS PRESSED TO HIS BROW. Inscribed First thought of Cain. F. T. (Frederick Tatham).
- (15) (a) "HOW I PITY." Two crouching figures beneath a seated majestic form. Inscribed "How I pity."
- (b) A THRONED KING, WITH ARMED GUARDS ON EITHER SIDE OF HIM, ADDRESSING WITH HAND UPLIFTED A PROSTRATE FIGURE BEFORE HIM.
- (c) CHAINING OF ORC. A naked man and woman standing above a figure fettered to the earth; the woman weeping.
- (16) (a) A NAKED, HALF KNEELING FIGURE (ORC?), ADDRESSED BY ANOTHER.
- (b) THE JOURNEY OF LIFE. A youth, seen from behind, ascending a rocky path, a staff in his hand. Inscribed The Journey of Life. Almost identical with the figure in 'Jerusalem,' p. 97.
- (17) "HAMLET AND THE GHOST." A naked kneeling figure, to whom a form, half seen, appears in a cloud rising from the earth. (By Robert Blake?) Rough pencil sketch, dashed with water colour.
- (18) (a) SATAN WATCHING THE ENDEARMENTS OF ADAM AND EVE. They sit in a bower, and he holds the serpent above them.
Probably a sketch for the design of the same subject described in Rossetti's Catalogue, List I., No. 75 d.
- (b) Ob. A VERY ROUGHLY BLOCKED OUT DESIGN, the centre of which is a figure walking with outstretched arms and averted head, like the figure in 'Jerusalem,' p. 26, or 'Urizen,' p. 3.
- Rev.* Sketch for the titlepage of an unfinished book, 'Visions of Eternity,' the title surrounded with various figures and floral ornaments.
- (19) (a) RETURN, ALPHEUS! Illustration to Milton's 'Lycidas.' The River God seems to lift up his head from shadowy waves, while the Vales at the Muse's call scatter flowers. Inscribed Return, Alpheus. (Very rough sketch.)
- (b) ILLUSTRATIONS TO 'PARADISE LOST.' The Archangel seated r., narrating the story of the Creation to Adam and Eve seated opposite him.
- (20) (a) SKETCH FOR AN ECCE HOMO. Pilate presenting Christ to the people. Inscribed Behold your King.
Perhaps a sketch for the design described in Rossetti's Catalogue, List I., No. 197.
- (b) Ob. STUDY FOR THE DESIGN TO BLAIR'S 'GRAVE'; Christ descending into the grave.
Rev. A FEMALE FIGURE WALKING, with arms uplifted wide, and looking back.
- (21) (a) Ob. ILLUSTRATION TO JOB: the sons of God appearing before the Lord. Perhaps a first thought for Plate II. of Blake's 'Job.'
Rev. ILLUSTRATION TO THE 'INFERNO,' Canto v. 4-12. Minos girding himself with his tail. Very slight sketch.
- (b) A GREAT SERPENT WITH TORMENTED FORMS ENTANGLED IN HIS FOLDS.
- (22) (a) A VERY SLIGHT AND SHADOWY SKETCH OF TWO STANDING FIGURES.
- (b) Ob. A SHEET OF ROUGH SKETCHES IN EIGHT COMPARTMENTS, containing each one or two figures, except one which is blank.
Rev. SIX SIMILAR COMPARTMENTS, with similar figures.
- (23) (a) A MAN SENDING AWAY A WOMAN WHO PROTESTS WITH A DEPRECATING GESTURE.
Pen and ink over pencil. (Probably not by Blake).
- (b) A SORT OF GARDEN, over the vast wall of which great cedars thrust their branches: in the centre, a walled well, surrounded by young trees, and with a ladder leaning on it; and r., the figure of a man.
Indian ink wash with pen outlines. (? By Blake).
Nos. (8)-(23) were presented by J. Deffett Francis, Esq., November, 1873, and December, 1874.

Attributed to Blake.

Ob. THE HEAD OF AN OLD MAN WITH A BEARD AND A CAP OVER LONG HAIR: on each side of this study, a female figure lightly sketched, and some small roughly pencilled figures at the side.

Pen and ink over pencil, partly tinted; roy., $8\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{3}{4}$ in.

Rev. THE LOWER PART OF A STUDY FOR A COMPOSITION; a girl, with a child at the door of a house, coming out to meet a girl with a pitcher; below, some pencil studies of arms and legs.

Indian ink, with pen outlines; roughly sketched, and partly washed with red.

Presented by Sidney Colvin, Esq., October, 1885.

BLAKEY, Nicholas (worked about 1752–1778). Designer and engraver; born in Ireland, but worked chiefly in Paris; best known by his designs for prints of English History, published 1752.

1. DESIGN FOR A BOOK-ILLUSTRATION. A woman, with weeping children clinging to her, supporting a dying girl, to whom the vision of a saint appears bearing in her hand a burning heart.

Pencil; roy., $5\frac{1}{2} \times 3$ in.

Purchased at the Bicknell sale, May, 1863.

BLORE, Edward (b. 1787, d. 1879). Architect and artist; born at Derby; began early to make architectural designs for county histories; was employed by Sir Walter Scott, 1816, in the building of Abbotsford; had a large practice as architect, and had a considerable share in the Gothic revival.

1. VIEW IN TICKENCOTE CHURCH, NEAR STAMFORD, RUTLANDSHIRE. A richly ornamented Norman arch, with a font, l., leading into a small chapel.

Purchased May, 1877.

2. THE HALL OF A MANSION. A large and lofty hall, with arched and decorated ceiling, and fireplace above which are two coats of arms between Corinthian pilasters; two gentlemen and two ladies are being shown the room by a servant.

Water colours; atl., $18\frac{1}{2} \times 23\frac{3}{4}$ in.

Purchased June, 1869.

BODEN, Samuel Standige (b. 1826, d. 1882). Landscape painter; born at Retford, worked in London; exhibited at Suffolk Street; a close follower of De Wint, some of whose unfinished drawings he completed for the market.

1. A FARMSTEAD. A man riding along a winding road from the open country; a small cottage r., and a larger one on the other side of the road, with trees about it and a rick, and a pond in front with cattle. Signed Boden.

Water colours; roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 16\frac{3}{4}$ in.

Purchased June, 1886.

BOITARD, Louis Philippe * (worked about 1738–1760). Engraver and designer; born in France and a pupil of La Farge; brought to England by his father, and engraved after Canaletto, Panini and others, beside designing and engraving a number of vignettes and illustrations, and some portraits.

* Boitard's second name is always given as Pierre; but on a print of the Pantheon after Panini he signs himself Ludovicus Philippus.

1. VILLAGE DANCERS. A young man and woman dancing with joined hands in the foreground; behind, a group of men and women drinking at a table, with a fiddler r. and piper l.; a house l. and trees r. beyond.

Water-colours and Indian ink, with pen outlines; roy., $8\frac{3}{4} \times 6\frac{5}{8}$ in.

Purchased August, 1853.

2. ORATOR HENLEY PREACHING IN THE 'TEMPLE OF REBELLION.' The interior of Henley's Chapel in Newport Market; he preaches from a pulpit l. adorned with fleur-de-lys, between two windows; a floating devil holds a noose and a crown over his head; beneath him the pews are crowded, and outside them, in the foreground, are standing groups of men and women, among them a man with a long stick and a dog; r. are steps leading to the gallery, which is also thronged. An ornamental border encloses the sides and top of the design.

Indian ink with pen outlines; roy., $6\frac{3}{8} \times 10$ in.

Engraved in reverse and published, without name of designer or engraver, Dec. 10, 1746. In the print an additional figure, Jack Ketch, is introduced on the steps of the gallery, holding out a book, inscribed, Coup de Grace; this figure is roughly added in pencil on the drawing. On the border at the top of the engraving is The Brazen Face'd O—R or Popish Incendiary, on a scroll; and beneath under The Temple of Rebellion are verses beginning:

H—y exalts his Voice, his arms extends
And Blasphemy with Treason madly blends, etc.

Quoted in full in the Catalogue of Satirical Prints in the British Museum, No. 2823, where the print is described and annotated. John Henley was born 1692 at Melton Mowbray, and educated there and at Cambridge; was ordained 1716 and came to London 1721, but, owing to his eccentricities, was obliged to leave the Church, and set up as an independent preacher in Newport Market. He was supposed to have Jacobite leanings, and on December 4, 1746, was arrested, but was not tried. The present drawing was made on that occasion (cf. a similar satire by Hogarth, Oratory Chappel). Henley died in 1756.

Purchased June, 1862.

BOL, Cornelis (worked about 1660). Painter; born in Holland, visited England before the Great Fire, views of which he painted, as well as some views of buildings.

1. THE CASTLE AT GRAVESEND. A small castellated building l. on the shore of the Thames, in which are a few boats and a ship r.; the castle surrounded with a pallisade, above which are some cannon; a flag floats from a round tower nearest the water.

Indian ink with pen outlines; roy., $3\frac{3}{4} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.

Purchased December, 1859.

BONINGTON, Richard Parkes (b. 1801, d. 1828). Painter and lithographer; born near Nottingham, but worked almost wholly in France; studied under Louis Francia at Calais, and under Gros in Paris, where his water colours soon made him famous; after 1824 painted also in oils, and worked with Delacroix; visited Venice, then settled in Paris; fell ill and came over to consult a doctor in London, where he died. Bonington had a very great influence on the modern landscape art of France, and was the first to show the French the capabilities of water colours.

1. ROUEN, FROM THE RIVER. The Cathedral as it appeared before the fire of 1822, rising above old crowded roofs; in the foreground, the quay with boats and shipping.

Water colours and reed pen; roy., $16 \times 10\frac{7}{8}$ in.

Lithographed, with modifications, by Bonington. The lithograph is placed with the drawing. Etched by F. Short, in the Portfolio, 1888, Vol. 19.

Purchased July, 1859.

2. THE DEATH OF QUEEN KATHARINE: SHAKESPEARE'S 'KING HENRY VIII.,' ACT IV., SCENE II. The queen sits faint and dying in her chair, two maids sitting near with heads hung down, and courtiers whispering together behind.
Water colours; roy., $4\frac{5}{8} \times 3\frac{3}{8}$ in.
Purchased June, 1870.
3. (a) A GIPSIES' CAMP. Gipsies round a fire under a tree; a rough sketch.
Pen and Indian ink wash; roy., $1\frac{1}{2} \times 2\frac{1}{2}$ in.
(b) VIEW IN A FRENCH TOWN. View down a street, with a tall tower l., and the façade of a church in front.
Pen and sepia, slightly washed with Indian ink; roy., $3\frac{3}{4} \times 3$ in.
Presented by John Deffett Francis, Esq., December, 1874.
4. Ob. VIEW IN A TOWN OF THE LOW COUNTRIES. A sheet of water, with a canal opening on it l., bordered by houses, which stretch along the water r.; a sailing boat, half-seen, with yellow rudder, in the foreground. A calm sunny morning.
Water colours; roy., $9\frac{1}{2} \times 13\frac{5}{8}$ in.
Rev. A Dutch hay-boat and rowing boats; and part of a boat with figures.
Pencil.
5. DISTANT VIEW OF A CASTLE. Open country with round towers of a castle on rising ground in the blue distance; in the foreground, r., a tree.
Water colours; roy., $2\frac{5}{8} \times 4\frac{1}{4}$ in.
6. (a) A PROCESSION COMING OUT OF A CHURCH. A door in a Gothic church, from which priests in white robes issue; while three darkly-clad figures wait without, two of them kneeling.
Water colour sketch; roy., $4\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{1}{2}$ in.
(b) FIGURES AT THE DOOR OF A CHURCH. Two figures in dark robes waiting for a priest at the door of a Norman church.
Water colour sketch; roy., $4\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{1}{2}$ in.
7. VIEW IN BOLOGNA. A square, which a procession is crossing, with the two leaning towers rising to blue sky against a massive cloud.
Water colours and reed pen; roy., $8\frac{3}{8} \times 5\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Nos. 4-7 were purchased June, 1885.
8. (a) PART OF A SHIP'S MAST.
Pencil; roy., $1\frac{7}{8} \times 3\frac{3}{4}$ in.
(b) STUDY OF BARRELS.
Presented by Mrs. Barclay, July, 1889.
9. LONDON BRIDGE. The bridge seen in perspective from the Southwark side, just above it.
Water colours; roy., $7\frac{1}{4} \times 5\frac{1}{8}$ in.

Purchased December, 1867.

BURNET, John (b. 1784, d. 1868). Painter, etcher, and engraver; brother of the preceding; born at Musselburgh, and apprenticed to Robert Scott, the engraver, studying painting at the same time; came to London 1806, and began 1810 the series of works after his friend Wilkie, by which he is best known; painted "The Greenwich Pensioners" and other pictures, and wrote several practical works on painting. A fine collection of Burnet's engravings, with proofs presented by himself, is in the department.

1. PLAYING AT DRAUGHTS; STUDY FOR THE PICTURE. Two peasants playing at draughts outside the vine-shaded door of a cottage, in which a woman stands with a child in her arms, looking on; a dog r., by the player who is winning.
Sepia and Indian ink with reed pen outlines, touched with white; roy., $11\frac{3}{8} \times 8\frac{7}{8}$ in.
The principal lines of the composition have been gone over with a brush at the back of the drawing, which is in the reverse direction from the engraving done by Burnet from his own picture in 1812.
Purchased October, 1853.
2. STUDY OF A BULLOCK. A young bullock standing, turned l.
Presented by John Deffett Francis, Esq., February, 1875.

BURNEY, Edward Francis (b. 1760, d. 1848). Book-illustrator and painter; born at Worcester; studied at the Royal Academy, and exhibited there from 1781 to 1803, chiefly portraits; afterwards devoted himself to book-illustration.

Purchased June, 1889.

BYNG, Edward (d. after 1723), and Robert (worked about 1716). Painters; brothers, and assistants of Sir Godfrey Kneller, for whom they painted drapery, and whose unfinished pictures they completed at his death. Two at least of the following drawings are after pictures by Michael Dahl [q. v.], and it seems probable, therefore, that the Byngs entered his studio after the death of Kneller, to whose practice Dahl succeeded. In the drawings catalogued below two different hands are perceptible, but it is impossible to assign any definitely to either brother. Two portraits by Robert Byng have been engraved.

1. LARGE SKETCH-BOOK, containing drawings in pen and ink, mostly washed with Indian ink, or in black chalk, on grey paper, heightened with white; $21\frac{1}{2} \times 12\frac{3}{4}$ in. All these, except the two after Dahl, are presumably after Kneller; many are identified as such by engravings.
- (1) SIDNEY GODOLPHIN, FIRST EARL OF GODOLPHIN. W.L., seated, in the robes of the Garter, with the Garter hat on the table r.
- (2) (a) A PAINTER. T.Q.L., seated painting, palette in r. hand.
(b) A GENTLEMAN. W.L., standing in a park by a fountain r., directed l., with r. hand extended.
- (3) A GENTLEMAN, PROBABLY A MILITARY OFFICER. W.L., seated, hat and baton on a table r., helmet and armour on the ground l.
- (4) A LADY IN A RIDING HABIT. W.L., in riding costume and three-cornered hat, standing in a park; a groom with a horse in the background r.
- (5) EDWARD VILLIERS, FIRST EARL OF JERSEY. W.L., standing, in peer's robes, the l. arm resting on a pedestal, bearing a coat-of-arms, on which lies an earl's coronet. The key hanging from the waist, and the coat-of-arms, identify this portrait as that of the Earl of Jersey, Lord Chamberlain, 1700-1704.
- (6) A WIDOWED LADY. W.L., seated on a marble seat; l., a curtain; r., an urn upon a pedestal with a sculptured Cupid weeping over an hour-glass.
- (7) A MILITARY COMMANDER. W.L., standing, in armour, holding a baton in both hands; r., a helmet and gauntlet on a bank by a tree; in the background, l., a cavalry fight beneath a castle.
- (8) GEORGE BYNG, VISCOUNT TORRINGTON. W.L., standing, r. hand on a table holding a letter "To the Treasurer of his Maj. Navy."
Byng was Treasurer of the Navy 1720-1724. If this portrait does not represent Byng (with whose engraved portrait it agrees fairly), it may represent John Aislabie or Richard Hampden, who were also Treasurers of the Navy in the reign of George I.
- (9) A LADY. W.L., standing.
- (10) A GENTLEMAN. W.L., standing. Statues of War and Justice in the background. This drawing is after a portrait by Dahl, and Dahl's own drawing of it is in the department.
- (11) A LADY. W.L., standing, with spaniel by a fountain r.

Nos. (57), (58) (a) and (b), (59) (a) and (b), are not by Lady Callcott, but by Augustus Earle, or after him by Denis Dighton. They have been removed and placed with Earle [q.v.].

(60)–(87) 112 Pencil Drawings, four, or, in a few cases, five or three on a page, for wood-engravings in Lady Callcott's 'Scripture Herbal,' London, 1842.

All bequeathed by Sir A. W. Callcott, April, 1845.

CALVERT, Edward (b. 1799, d. 1883). Painter, engraver, and lithographer; born in Devonshire; entered the navy, but soon resigned his commission in order to give himself to painting; came to London, where he chiefly worked, and fell strongly under the influence of Blake, whose style he partly followed in some beautiful engravings on wood, copper, and stone; a set of these is in the department: exhibited little, but produced a number of classical compositions in oils; visited Greece 1844, and made many sketches there.

1. PORTRAIT OF MRS. EDWARD CALVERT. Head and shoulders, full face.
Black and red chalks on drab paper, heightened with white; roy., 13 × 10½ in.
Presented by Sidney Colvin, Esq., October, 1885.
2. THE GOLDEN AGE: STUDY FOR A CLASSICAL COMPOSITION. A nymph reclining on a robe spread along a bank; near her l., a shepherd piping in the valley to a nymph lying and listening at his feet.
Oil colours on paper; roy., 6¼ × 9¾ in.
Reproduced at p. 194 of the 'Memoir of Edward Calvert, by his third son.' London, 1893.
3. AMPHION WITH THE FLOCKS OF HIS BROTHER ZETHUS: A STUDY. He moves, lyre in hand, along a cliff, following the flock across a hollow, above which the gray sea appears.
Oil colours on paper; roy., 6¼ × 13½ in.
Reproduced in 'Memoir,' p. 98.
4. A PASTORAL. A shepherd and shepherdess seated l., upon a bank, watching their flocks feeding in a sunny glen.
Oil colours on paper; roy., 5½ × 10 in.
5. THE SHEPHERD. A naked shepherd leaning on a staff l., looking over a valley to a distant mountain.
Oil colours on paper; roy., 8½ × 12½ in.

6. SACRED SEATS: MORNING. A wooded hill-top above the sea, with marble seats on which three nymphs recline.
Oil colours on paper; roy., $9 \times 14\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Reproduced in 'Memoir,' p. 104.
Nos. 2-6 were purchased from Samuel Calvert, Esq., January, 1890.
7. THE OTHER SHORE: AWAITING THE ARRIVAL. In the foreground of a woodland slope, crowned with a temple in the near distance, two female figures, one draped and one nude, standing together; near them, l. and r., two other figures; all in an attitude of expectancy.
Oil colours on paper; roy., $8\frac{1}{4} \times 13\frac{1}{2}$ in.

(a) and (b) were presented by Miss Deacon, April, 1890.

- (c)
- LANDSCAPE STUDY.*
- A hollow among mountains, with a cottage in the foreground.

Pencil on drab paper, heightened with white; $6 \times 9\frac{3}{4}$ in.

(c) was presented by S. Calvert, Esq., March, 1890.

20. PAN AND PITYS. The nymph stands naked by a pine-tree, on the edge of a wood overhanging the wild valley r., where goats are browsing; she turns her head backwards to where Pan sits l., secluded in the shadow of the pines. A composition suggested by the lines of Landor :—

“A maid was wooed by Boreas and by Pan,
 Pitys her name, her haunt the wood and wild.
 Boreas she fled from; with more placid eye
 She looked on Pan.”

Oil colours on paper; roy., $7\frac{7}{8} \times 14\frac{3}{8}$ in.

Presented by Miss Deacon, April, 1890.

21. STUDY FOR ‘PAN AND PITYS.’ The left half of the composition is nearly the same; but the valley at the r. is blank. Pitys leans against the tree in a somewhat different attitude, and the whole is more warm and aerial in colour. Signed with a pen, *E. C.*Oil colours on paper, arched at the top; roy., $9\frac{3}{8} \times 14\frac{3}{8}$ in.Reproduced in Memoir, p. 182.

Nos. 22 and 23 were presented by Miss Deacon, April, 1890.

24. (a) PROW OF A GREEK GALLEY.
Pen and ink; $6\frac{1}{2} \times 4\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Reproduced in Memoir, p. X.
- (b) STUDY FOR A PICTURE. A woman timidly entering a dark wood.
Pen and ink; $3\frac{3}{8} \times 5\frac{1}{2}$ in.
(a) and (b) were presented by S. Calvert, Esq., March, 1890.
- (c) THE LESSON ON THE REEDS; A SKETCH. A shepherd with a shepherdess, whom he is teaching to play upon the reeds, reclining under a knot of trees upon the bare hill-side.
Pen sketch on grey paper; $7\frac{3}{4} \times 10\frac{5}{8}$ in.
Reproduced in 'The Hobby Horse,' Vol. VII., 1892.
Presented by Miss Deacon, April, 1890.
25. THE LESSON ON THE REEDS. A different version of the subject of the last. The two figures lie on a grassy bank, topped with a row of trees; at the end of the valley l., a glimpse of mountain.
Oil colours on paper; roy., $7 \times 12\frac{1}{2}$ in.
26. Two on one mount, roy., viz.:—
(a) STUDY FOR THE FIGURES OF THE LAST COMPOSITION.
Pencil; $4\frac{1}{4} \times 7$ in.
- (b) STUDY FOR THE SAME COMPOSITION. At the l. are a herd of goats.
Pencil on grey paper; $6\frac{1}{4} \times 10\frac{5}{8}$ in.
27. A MIGRATION OF NOMADS. They drive their flocks in the early dawn across a broad hollow of the hills, oxen with waggons bringing up the rear.
Oil colours on paper; roy., $4\frac{3}{4} \times 13\frac{5}{8}$ in.
- A study for the picture, reproduced p. 64 of Memoir, in the possession of W. F. Robinson, Esq., Q.C., now called "Arcadian Shepherds Moving their Flocks at Dawn." The other title was Calvert's own. The subject originated in a sketch made in Greece. Calvert's 'Diurnal of a Tour in Greece' has the following:—
"Friday, 24 May. Left Thebes at about four o'clock. We had seen on the way a party of Nomades, shepherds with their flocks. They were on their way to more mountainous pasturage, as the summer is advancing." [Memoir, p. 208.]
28. STUDY FOR A PASTORAL. A goatherd sitting naked beneath a rude tent among the woods; his companion lies l. at the tent's corner, and a few goats are seen in the shade outside.
Oil colours on paper; roy., $5\frac{1}{4} \times 10\frac{3}{8}$ in.
29. A YOUNG SHEPHERD ON A JOURNEY: ADAPTED FROM WILLIAM BLAKE. A young shepherd with a staff, moving to the l. along a mountain path; r. a finger-post at a cross-way, and in the foreground a milestone.
Oil colours on paper; roy., $5\frac{1}{4} \times 11\frac{3}{4}$ in.
The composition is slightly altered from one of Blake's woodcuts to Thornton's 'Pastorals.'
30. Four on one mount, roy., viz.:—
(a) STUDY FOR A COMPOSITION. A man seated in thought, his chin on his hand; r., another figure faintly adumbrated.
Pen and ink sketch; roy., $2\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{5}{8}$ in.
- (b) STUDY OF A NYMPH.
Pen and ink sketch; $2\frac{3}{8} \times 1\frac{3}{8}$ in.
At the side of this sketch is written in pencil, Panos secessus. This was to have been the title of a picture of the God of Nature, which Calvert long intended to paint, but apparently only attempted, without satisfying himself. This figure may have been meant to be introduced in the picture. See Memoir, p. 183.
- (c) STUDY OF A FEMALE FIGURE, AFTER GIORGIONE. The woman drawing water at a well, at the left of Giorgione's 'Concert' at the Louvre.
Pen and ink; $7\frac{3}{8} \times 5\frac{1}{8}$ in.
- (d) LANDSCAPE STUDY, AFTER SCHIAVONE. A stream between hills, with sheep in r. foreground.
Pen and ink; $2\frac{3}{8} \times 7\frac{3}{4}$ in.
From one of the Schiavone landscapes at Hampton Court.

31. Two on one mount, roy., viz. :—
 (a) STUDY FOR A CLASSICAL COMPOSITION, PERHAPS EUROPA. A nymph bearing a basket on her head in the foreground of a landscape, with a river r. and a white bull l. descending the slope from the woods.
 Sketch in oil colours on paper (cut at one end); $3 \times 5\frac{1}{4}$ in.
 (b) STUDY FOR A CLASSICAL COMPOSITION: AURORA AND TITHONUS. Tithonus lying on a bank, with the figure of the goddess standing over him; r., an indistinct group of nymphs with a horse and chariot.
 Sketch in oil colours on paper; $4 \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.
32. A DAY AT THE PORT: STUDY FOR A CLASSICAL COMPOSITION. The waters of a harbour, and two anchored ships, among high wooded banks, with scattered temples and buildings; in the foreground, r., a man and woman by an altar conversing, and goats browsing on the slopes above.
 Light sketch in chalks on yellowish grey paper; $10\frac{5}{8} \times 15$ in.
33. Two on one mount, roy., viz. :—
 (a) STUDY OF TREES. A group of elms in autumn colours crowning a hill.
 Oil colours on paper; $7 \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.
 (b) PART OF A STUDY FOR A PASTORAL. A sunny nook in a forest with a girl in golden drapery reclining l.; her knees and feet alone appear.
 Oil colours on paper; $9\frac{1}{2} \times 8\frac{1}{2}$.
34. Two on one mount, roy., viz. :—
 (a) LANDSCAPE STUDY. A bare hill, topped with wood, sloping l. to a wide valley, under a clouded sky.
 Water colours on grey paper, heightened with white; 6×10 in.
 (b) LANDSCAPE STUDY. A wide expanse of sea viewed above the foliage of a wooded coombe.
 Water colours and pen on grey paper; $7\frac{3}{8} \times 10\frac{1}{4}$ in.
35. STUDY OF A TREE. An elm on the slope of a steep bank overhung with bushes.
 Water colours on yellowish grey paper; roy., $14\frac{2}{3} \times 10\frac{5}{8}$ in.
36. Two on one mount, roy., viz. :—
 (a) LANDSCAPE STUDY. Trees on a hill side, sloping r.
 Coloured chalks on greenish paper; $6\frac{1}{8} \times 8\frac{1}{2}$ in.
 (b) LANDSCAPE STUDY. Part of a rocky glen, overgrown with bushes, and with a hollow r., filled with firs and undergrowth.
 Black chalk on dark grey paper; $8 \times 10\frac{5}{8}$ in.
37. LANDSCAPE WITH GOATS. A wild hollow with overhanging oaks r., and goats browsing up the other bank.
 Black chalk on prepared paper, heightened with white; roy., $7\frac{3}{8} \times 10\frac{5}{8}$ in.
38. Two on one mount, roy., viz. :—
 (a) GOATS RUNNING UP A MOUNTAIN SLOPE.
 Pencil sketch; $4\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{1}{8}$ in.
 (b) GOATS ON A ROCKY HEIGHT.
 Pencil sketch; $4\frac{1}{2} \times 6$ in.
39. Two on one mount, roy., viz. :—
 (a) LANDSCAPE STUDY. The edge of a wood, with open grass l.
 Black chalk and charcoal; $5\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$ in.
 (b) STUDY OF DEER. Two stags fighting in the foreground; behind, trees and deer.
 Black chalk on grey paper, heightened with white; $5 \times 9\frac{3}{8}$ in.
40. CULTURED LIFE: THE GREEK TEMPLE; A STUDY. At the porch of a temple r. a female figure sits playing a lyre to a figure seated opposite crowned with a chaplet.
 Charcoal and black chalk; roy., $8\frac{1}{4} \times 12\frac{1}{8}$ in.
 A similar composition in oils, but reversed, is reproduced in the Memoir, p. 200.
 Nos 25-40 were presented by Miss Deacon, April, 1890.

41. NUDE STUDY. A female figure kneeling on one knee and holding the sleeve of a figure, only partly indicated, in Turkish dress.
Black and red chalks on drab paper, heightened with white; imp., $21\frac{1}{2} \times 13\frac{3}{8}$ in.
Above, a small sketch of the latter figure.
Purchased July, 1885.

CALVERT, Frederick (worked about 1815–1844). Topographical draughtsman, landscape painter, etcher, and lithographer. Some lithographed Drawing Books and studies of ‘British Scenery’ are in the department.

1. WEST COWES, ISLE OF WIGHT. The village l., on the shores of the river, with anchored ships, sailing boats, and, in the foreground, a three-masted yacht.
Water colours over Indian ink; roy., $4\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ in.
2. YARMOUTH, ISLE OF WIGHT. A cutter and a fisherman’s boat in rough water at the mouth of the river; along the shores are seen scattered houses r., and a castle among woods l.
Water colours over Indian ink; roy., $5\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{3}{4}$ in.
3. APPULDURCOMBE PARK, ISLE OF WIGHT. A park with a house in the near distance in a hollow, beyond which a hill rises l., surmounted by an obelisk, and overhanging r., the open country under a sunset sky.

4. STUDENTS AT THE BRITISH INSTITUTION, 1806. One of the rooms at the British Institution, in Pall Mall, with artists copying from an exhibition of pictures by old masters. At the extreme l., Henry Howard, Rowlandson and James Green are copying a Vandyck portrait. Next is Miss Jackson, a diminutive figure, looking up to Douglas Guest, a giant smiling down on her. In the centre, a little further off, Miss Fanny Reinagle and Nicholas Pocock are disputing over a copy of Rembrandt's 'Mill' on an easel, behind which Dixon and Celli are working. Next, Benjamin West, buttoned up and with his hat on, painting eagerly, while Miss Hayes looks on open-mouthed l.; and nearer, a boy, seen from behind, painting on a high stool; all these are copying Rembrandt's 'Mill,' which stands on an easel, with a great 'Claude' on the wall behind it. In the foreground, S. W. Reynolds, in profile, copying a Rembrandt portrait; behind him, Valentine Green, talking to Miss Charlotte Reinagle; and at the extreme r., Masquerier. A heap of painting materials in the foreground towards the l. Signed with monogram.

Indian ink with pen outlines, lightly tinted with water colours; imp., $12\frac{1}{2} \times 20\frac{1}{2}$ in.

5. STUDENTS AT THE BRITISH INSTITUTION, 1807. One of the rooms at the British Institution, with a staircase opening in the floor, in the centre foreground, and the porter coming up to announce "Four o'clock, ladies and gentlemen!" to a number of artists copying pictures on the walls. In the centre, beyond the staircase rails, a raised platform, on which R. Reinagle and G. W. Gent are making studies from a huge landscape, Irvine standing between them in a critical attitude. G. Dawe leans against the front of the platform, gazing up at a picture, and Chalon himself, a gigantic figure, sits on the edge of it r., laughing at a sally of Miss Dawe's, who looks up from her painting to speak to Michael Sharpe and George Samuel; the latter looks round smiling from his easel. Behind, F. C. Lewis is just seen, and more to the r., T. Medland, looking over a lady's shoulder. In the foreground r., Miss Pyne, a comical profile, nearly extinguished by a Quaker bonnet. At the l. of the platform, Mulready stands, looking at the work of John Linnell, a boy on a high stool with his tongue out, painting furiously; an unknown artist works beside them. In the foreground, paints and palette; and at the extreme l., Dighton, with his hand on his hip and his hair brushed up, frowning malignantly; beyond him, Mrs. Green, an ample figure with spectacles, talking to Richard Sass, near whom is a lady. Signed with monogram.

Indian ink with pen outlines, lightly tinted with water colours; imp., $12\frac{3}{4} \times 21$ in.

The British Institution for Promoting the Fine Arts in the United Kingdom was founded in 1805, and held its first exhibition of works by living artists in January, 1806. Later in the same year an exhibition of thirteen works by the old masters was held, and students were allowed to copy them. In the following year literal copies were prohibited, though studies were permitted. Valentine Green, the famous mezzotint engraver (b. 1739, d. 1813), who appears in the first of these drawings, was the Keeper of the Institution, which held its exhibitions at the Shakespeare Gallery, in Pall Mall. For Howard, Rowlandson, Guest, Pocock, West, S. W. Reynolds, Gent, Dawe, Lewis, Mulready, Linnell, Dighton, and Sass, see in this Catalogue, under their several names; and for James Green and his wife, Mary Green, see supra, under W. Behnes. Richard, son of Philip Reinagle (b. 1775, d. 1862), painted animals and portraits; he was elected R.A. 1823. Miss Fanny Reinagle exhibited at the British Institution and Royal Academy 1800-1812; Miss Charlotte Reinagle at the same galleries 1798-1821. Miss Jackson is probably Harriet A. E. Jackson, afterwards Mrs. John Browning, who worked about 1809-1816. Dixon may be J. Dixon, a landscape painter (worked about 1784-1811), but more probably William Dixon, a figure painter (worked about 1796-1827). A. Celli painted domestic subjects, exhibiting at the British Institution 1808-1812. A Miss M. Hayes exhibited portraits 1801-1809. John James Masquerier (b. 1778, d. 1855) had a large practice as portrait painter in the earlier years of this century. Irvine is probably Hugh Irvine, who painted historical subjects about 1808-1829. A Miss Dawe exhibited a picture 1836, but can hardly be the lady here represented. Michael William Sharp (d. 1840), a pupil of Beechey and friend of Crome, was popular for his domestic scenes and portraits; he gained a premium at the British Institution in 1809. George Samuel (worked about 1785-1823) painted clever landscapes in oils and water colours. Thomas Medland (d. 1833) exhibited occasional landscapes in water colours from 1777, but is best known as an engraver, also of landscapes. Miss Pyne was probably a sister or relation of W. H. Pyne, the water colour painter, who was a Quaker.

Nos. 4 and 5 purchased June, 1879.

6. THE OPERA BOX. The interior of a box, with a young lady seated l., holding a small bouquet of flowers; at the r. another lady, looking up over her shoulder at a gentleman standing behind. Beyond, the opposite boxes, filled with fashionable people, and on the stage the première danseuse balancing on one toe, unnoticed by anyone. Signed and dated A. E. Chalon, R.A., etc., 1838.

Water colours; imp., $18\frac{1}{2} \times 13\frac{3}{8}$ in.

Purchased February, 1886.

CHALON, John James, R.A. (b. 1778, d. 1854). Painter; elder brother of the preceding; studied at the Royal Academy, and elected A.R.A. in 1827, R.A. in 1841; was also a member of the Water Colour Society; a skilful painter of many kinds of subjects, but chiefly distinguished in landscape; worked in London.

1. LANDSCAPE WITH CATTLE. A grassy slope with a clump of willows by a wooden bridge over a stream r., and two men and a dog under the trees; a tree-trunk in the l. foreground, and two cows, one standing, one lying down, between it and the men; beyond, l., fields with a few cattle and distant trees.

Sepia and Indian ink on pale buff paper, heightened with white; roy., $7\frac{1}{4} \times 10\frac{1}{2}$ in.

CROME, John (b. 1768, d. 1821). Landscape painter and etcher; born at Norwich, and apprenticed to a house and sign painter; assisted in youth by Sir W. Beechey; worked in the Lakes and on the Wye, but chiefly in Norfolk; in France and Belgium 1814; one of the founders and the most famous master of the Norwich school; was influenced in his earlier period by Gainsborough and Richard Wilson, latterly by Hobbema, but always powerfully original. A fine collection of Crome's etchings is in the department. His water colours are rare.

1. LANDSCAPE; IN THE MANNER OF RICHARD WILSON. A road descending a slope on which goats are browsing, with trees r. and l.; on the road two men on horseback and one on foot going down to a hollow bounded by rocks, over which pours a waterfall from a lake; fields beyond and distant mountains.

Black chalk on gray paper, heightened with white; roy., $11\frac{1}{8} \times 16\frac{3}{8}$ in.

In technique and subject so much in Wilson's manner that it may be presumed to be after a drawing by him.

Crome certainly admired and imitated Wilson in his youth; and if this drawing is by him, it must date quite from his boyhood, as it shows no trace whatever of his matured style. It seems, however, by no means improbable that it may belong to Wilson's pupil, Robert Crone (d. 1779), who drew in this manner. The similarity of names would account for the attribution to Crome.

Presented by W. H. Carpenter, Esq., June, 1864.

2. ON THE RIVER AT THORPE, NEAR NORWICH. The river flows into the foreground, with two boats moored by the bank and men drinking in a shed of the pleasure-gardens r.; above the shed a tree, and beyond it the wooded bank of the river curving away towards the l., with the front of a house showing at the bend. Inscribed View from King's Head Gardens at Thorpe. July 3rd, 1806. J. Crome.

Pencil; roy., $6\frac{5}{8} \times 12\frac{1}{4}$ in.

From this study Crome painted the picture now in the possession of Mr. H. G. Barwell of Norwich, and reproduced in the 'Portfolio,' April, 1897. In the picture there is an effect of sudden sunshine playing brilliantly on a drooping mass of foliage introduced over the shed.

Purchased December, 1897.

3. THE HOLLOW ROAD. A cart with three donkeys and two men coming up a road between a high bank r., and a sandy hillock l., on which are oaks with thickets behind; above the road a glimpse of distant country and a great cloud overhead.

Water colours; atl., $16\frac{1}{2} \times 24\frac{1}{2}$ in.

Purchased December, 1871.

CROME, John Bernay (b. 1794, d. 1842). Landscape painter; eldest son of John Crome; worked in the manner of his father, whom he helped and succeeded as a teacher; travelled frequently on the Continent; painted good pictures in his earlier years, but latterly produced chiefly moonlight effects of facile and coarse execution.

1. STUDY OF FLOWERS. A nosegay of rose, tulip, convolvulus, and marguerite. Signed and dated John B. Crome, 1825.

Purchased May, 1895.

2. NEAR LINCOLN. A willow stump at the bend of a river; a man with fishing-rod standing on the bank r., and a wherry in the water close behind him; on a height at some distance l., the roofs and cathedral towers of Lincoln.

Indian ink, with reed-pen outlines; $4 \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.

Inserted in Vol. VI. of the interleaved Academy Catalogues, presented by J. H. Anderson, Esq., November, 1867.

CROMEK, Thomas Hartley (b. 1809, d. 1873). Landscape painter; son of R. H. Crome, the engraver; member of the New Water-Colour Society, and exhibited there and at the Royal Academy between 1835 and 1872.

1. PORTRAIT OF POPE PIUS VII. Head and shoulders, three-quarter face turned r.; a halo round the skull-cap.

Water colours, highly finished; roy., $5\frac{5}{8} \times 4$ in.

After a picture. Pius VII. (d. 1823) was the Pope who crowned Napoleon I. and was imprisoned by him.

Purchased May, 1885, at the Cheney sale.

CROSTHWAITE, Daniel (worked about 1833–1845). Portrait painter; exhibited a few pictures at the Royal Academy and Suffolk Street Galleries.

1. STUDY FROM THE ANTIQUE. Study of a man seated and holding a pitcher. Signed Daniel Crosthwaite, as probationer.

Black chalk and stump on drab paper; imp., $19\frac{7}{8} \times 14\frac{1}{4}$ in.

Presented by Mrs. Jones, January, 1872.

CROTCH, William (b. 1775, d. 1847). Musical composer, amateur painter and etcher; born at Norwich; composer of "Palestine"; for some years organist of Christ Church, Oxford, where he chiefly worked. A set of his etchings is in the department.

1. VIEW NEAR ELSFIELD, OXFORDSHIRE. A field on rising ground, with slopes beyond, meeting in a wooded hollow.

Chalks and wash on bluish paper; roy., $11 \times 17\frac{1}{4}$ in.

2. BECKLEY PARK, OXFORDSHIRE. A farm l., backed by a great elm and other trees, on a gentle hill sloping r. to the level country; near the foreground r. an ash-tree by a gate, and l. a tree upon a bank.

Chalks and wash on bluish paper; roy., $11\frac{1}{2} \times 15\frac{7}{8}$ in.

3. VIEW NEAR OXFORD. A marshy meadow surrounded by trees in full foliage, with a gate near the r.

Purchased April, 1885.

CROUCH, — (worked about 1850). Draughtsman, chiefly of Italian scenery. Biography unknown.

1. TEMPLE AT PAESTUM. A near view of the temple from one of the ends, showing the pediment; a figure seated on the steps and another standing in the foreground.

Purchased at the Percy sale, May, 1890.

CRUIKSHANK, George (b. 1792, d. 1878). Painter, etcher, book-illustrator, and caricaturist; born in London; son of Isaac Cruikshank, the caricaturist; worked in London throughout his long career, starting with the very beginning of the century as a satirist of political personages, such as Napoleon and the Prince Regent, in a style like Gillray's; from about 1820 turned more and more to book-illustration, etching designs (1824–26) in the vein in which he most excelled, of droll and fantastic invention, for 'Grimm's Popular Stories,' to mention one out of numberless works; began in 1836 his connection, as illustrator, with Dickens and Ainsworth; published 1847 the set of plates called 'The Bottle,' depicting a drunkard's tragedy, and from that year devoted much of his powers to the temperance cause; painted several pictures in later years, including the large but feeble 'Worship of Bacchus.' His real successes were all in book illustration and social caricature, in which fields, though a mannered draughtsman, he showed amazing spirit and fertility of invention and of hand. The department contains an immense collection of Cruikshank's sketches, bequeathed by his executors, which are in process of being arranged in a set of albums, accompanied, wherever possible, with the corresponding prints.

19. 'A LONG TIME A MAKING A DRAWING IN A YOUNG LADY'S ALBUM.' Time, a winged, immensely attenuated figure seated on an hour-glass, with a scythe at his feet, writing in an album resting on a pedestal, the folds of his garment inscribed with the years from 1838 to 1843. Signed and dated George Cruikshank, June 8th, 1843.

Pen and ink; roy., $10\frac{3}{8} \times 8$ in.

Nos. 18 and 19 were purchased July, 1891.

20. SKETCH FOR THE SAME SUBJECT. Time here stands r., holding an hour-glass in one hand, and pointing to it with the other, and looking down on the young lady, a tiny figure l. holding up imploring arms. Inscribed A long time, and signed Geo. Cruikshank.
Pencil and pen; roy., $10\frac{3}{4} \times 8$ in.
21. PORTRAIT OF WILLIAM HARRISON AINSWORTH. Head and shoulders in profile, looking r. Inscribed by the artist William Harrison Ainsworth by Geo. Cruikshank.
Pencil; $9 \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ in.
W. H. Ainsworth, born 1805 in Manchester, first obtained with 'Rookwood' the brilliant popularity which he enjoyed in the middle years of this century; but his reputation had greatly declined before his death in 1882; a writer of vivid narrative, he had no other qualifications as a novelist.
22. PORTRAIT OF MR. RUTHERFORD, PIANOFORTE MAKER. Whole length, walking r., with hat in r. hand and cane under l. arm. With three pencil studies for the face. Inscribed by the artist Rutherford, Pianoforte maker at Messrs. Broadwood's, and dated George Cruikshank.
Pencil, tinted with water colours; roy., $15\frac{1}{4} \times 11\frac{1}{4}$ in.
23. Two on one mount, roy., viz.:—
(a) PORTRAIT STUDIES OF RACHEL. Probably as Phèdre or other heroine of classic drama. Two studies of Rachel's head with a vehement and angry expression; with a third slight sketch of the head, and a Cupid sketched r.
Pencil; $7\frac{1}{2} \times 4\frac{3}{4}$ in.
(b) PORTRAIT STUDIES OF RACHEL. In the same character. Two whole-length studies, one with arms outstretched in protest, two others in profile; a half-length study in profile with passionate expression. Also a slight study of the figure and one of the face.
Pencil; $8\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.
Elisabeth Rachel Félix, called Rachel, born in Switzerland, 1821, of Jewish origin, appeared first at the Théâtre Français, 1838, and almost at once took rank as the finest tragic actress of her time. In Racine and Corneille she was unapproached, in modern plays scarcely less triumphant. London, which she visited in 1840 and afterwards, was equally enthusiastic with Paris. She died in 1858. A portrait of Rachel as Marie Stuart was engraved in Cruikshank's 'Omnibus,' after a drawing, not by Cruikshank, but apparently worked up from a sketch by him, catalogued below, No. (1005).
Nos. 20–23 were bequeathed by Mrs. George Cruikshank, December, 1891.
24. SKETCH PORTRAIT OF THE ARTIST. Seated at table, knife and fork in hand. Inscribed M^r. George Cruikshank as he is expected to appear at M^r. Anderdon's table at $\frac{1}{2}$ past 6 on Thursday, Dec^r. 4th, 1851. 48 Mornington Place, Dec^r. 2nd, 1851.

Pen and ink; $6 \times 4\frac{3}{4}$ in.

Inserted in Vol. X. of the interleaved Academy Catalogues, presented by J. H. Anderdon, Esq., November, 1867.

The following sketches, the subjects of which are identified from prints by or after Cruikshank, are in process of arrangement in Albums; the prints (where possessed by the Museum) being mounted with the drawings corresponding. They are numbered continuously, (1)–(1879), and are arranged in the order of Reid's Catalogue of Cruikshank's Works.

A few sketches by Captain Marryat, Alfred Crowquill (A. H. Forrester), and Captain Barker are included, as they formed the basis of drawings and etchings by Cruikshank.
